Dear Mary,

Received your latest BALDWIN news and it is great. The REBECCA BURKS of Rockingham Co., NC information is quite interesting. Obediah Nunnally who married Elizabeth Baldwin, sister of Rebecca moved ca 1820 to Caswell Co., NC which is next to Rockingham. This places two Baldwin children in NC. I really feel, but feelings do not count, that the Anderson Nunnery quite early in NC is Anderson Nunnally who married Martha Baldwin.

I am enclosing a copy of the court record pertaining to Samuel Baldwin of Charlotte Co., etc. to George Baldwin...

Also, enclosing a copy of some Hickman Co., TN court records which pertain to one Samuel Spragins. Our Joseph Nunneley (b NC) and son of Anderson lived in Hickman Co., as did all of the Nunnally's I am researching.

Found some items from GA newspapers which give a bit on one Benjamin Baldwin. I suspect he married twice. It appears his first wife died young and he married in 1802, Caty Watson. The Cochran information tells me nothing.

You may have the will of William Baldwin, but sending it anyway. I have a copy of the original and it is impossible to read. The copy I am sending must be the one that the scribe entered into the court record.

I have recently found one SAMUEL COCHRAN quite early in North Carolina. I did not copy the material which was in the North Carolina Genealogical Society Journal, but believe it was ca 1765. If you do not have the information, let me know and I will find it again and copy it. If your Samuel died in 1791 and was an adult by 1765, this may be a good lead.

Do you have the DAR papers on the Samuel Cochran, d after 10/27/1791, m Marah (? who offered patriotic service from the state of VA during the Revolutionary War ? He is listed in the DAR Patriot Index (vol 1), page 140. I am a member of DAR on Charles Rose of NJ and have found the members papers to be of such help to some researchers. If you are not a member, any member can order those open papers for $3.00 on any proven patriot. This may not be the right Samuel, but the death date is certainly the same. If you do not have them, it might be worth the $3.00 to see what proofs the DAR member listed for her membefship eligibility.

Hope I am sending something new! Thanks for the Baldwin info and feel that it is really a possibility that your Samuel and our Marthey may be the children of William and Elizabeth. Our Joseph, son of Anderson and Martha Baldwin Nunnally, also went to Arkansas from Tennessee.

Write again, and let us keep after these BALDWINS -

Happy New Year '84

Mary

———, of Vermont, had a son d. y., and Chester thought to have gone from Vermont to near Cuba, Allegany county, N. Y., where he lived many years, and d. when his son was a child. Chester had a son Charles G., b. in 1845. In September, 1875, Charles G. was a lawyer in Syracuse, of Baldwin & Hahn; residence, 112 South Salina street; office, 15 and 16 Clinton Block; unm.; he has four younger brothers West.

VIRGINIA.

1. BENJAMIN. By tradition, his son Jesse was b. in North Carolina. There was a brother, the father of W. H., and probably Jonathan. (See 3 Jonathan.²)

2. Jesse. +
3. Jonathan. +

The tradition, in the line of Jesse, does not give the name of Benjamin,¹ the line of Jonathan does.

2. JESSE,² by tradition, b. in North Carolina; m. Miss Hannah Thornbury, and soon after moved to Greenbriar county, Va., where nine children were born.

4. Enos, m. Miss Hunt. He was a farmer in Champaign county, Ohio; raised a large family; d. aged about 55.

5. Henry. +

6. Uriah, m. a Miss Turner, near Cincinnati, Ohio; was a farmer, with a large family, who d. aged about 70. His widow m. Henry Leaf, and living, in 1875, at Newtown P. O., Hamilton county, Ohio.

7. William, m., and after several ch. were born, moved to Mississippi; thence to near Indianapolis, Ind. His wife is dead, and is said, in 1875, to be living with one of his sons.

8. Walter, m. Miss Olive Kent; moved to Put-in-Bay Island, Ohio; thence to a farm near Port Clinton, Ottawa county, Ohio; and soon after d. He raised a large family, it is said.

9. Sarah, m. Enoch Overman; he was a successful merchant many years at Petersburgh, Highland county, Ohio. They had a large family. He d. soon after removal to Iowa; his widow survived many years, and d. aged 74. Their home in Iowa was near Cedar Rapids.

10. Sophia, m. John Garrett, and d. many years since; he was a farmer in Fayette county, Ohio. They had two sons and a dau.

11. Daniel. +

12. Richard, b. in 1796. +

After the birth of these children, Jesse moved to Washington county, Ohio. Soon after, his wife died, and his older children having left home, he m. 2nd, Marion Macy.

3. JONATHAN[2] Benjamin.[1] The descendants of Jonathan make him the eldest son of Benjamin, and say nothing of him back of Virginia. The Jesse branch gives Jesse a brother, unnamed, to Champaign county, and father W. H.; so I consider the connection fairly identified. Jonathan was by tradition from Loudon county, Va., and had children:

13. Judge William H. +

14. Joshua. +

15. Benjamin. +

16. Joseph. +

17. Samuel. +

18. Harriet, m. Picklehelmer, and had three ch.: Mary; Hattie, m. Starkey, and has ch.; and Alfred.

19. Jonathan. +

20. Louisa, m. 1st, Cast, and had a s. William B.; and 2nd, Mulford, and had a dau. Hattie.

21. John G., m. and has ch.: (1) George W., m. and has ch.; and (2) Herbert.

22. Celicia, m. Cast. and had ch.: George W., John, Emma and Edward.

23. Asa, m. but had no ch.

24. T. B., m. and has a s. Clement.

5. HENRY[3] Jesse[2] Benjamin,[1] supposed by Rev. Perry C. to be the Henry who is thought to be from Virginia, and m. Nancy Wolf, of Asherville, N. C., where he settled. He was in the war of 1812, and taken prisoner. He moved to Camden, went off, and never returned.

25. Perry C., b. in 1816. +

26. Sarah, b. in 1818; living, in 1875, in Peru, Neb.

Thought by the relatives, other descendants of Jesse, to have m. Miss Elizabeth Rhodes, and had children:

27. Samuel.

28. Mary.

29. Hannah.

When the last was a babe, he went to Cincinnati; thence to Louisville, on pretext of business. It is said that he was recognized twenty years afterward, in the Red River country, as Reuben Davis, having there a wife, and daughter aged sixteen years or younger. The coincidences of the two Henrys are, that each was a saddler and harness maker, nearly six feet high, dark brown, well built and good looking; left two wives on the same business, to sell saddles and harnesses. Rev. Perry C. thinks them the same. I congratulate him on the abandonment, leaving him a child to grow an honorable and useful citizen.

11. DANIEL$^3$ Jesse$^2$ Benjamin,$^1$ when aged twenty-two, came to Champaign county, Ohio; and m. at twenty-five, Miss Hannah Williams. He was a farmer in Champaign, Logan and Hardin counties, Ohio. He d. near West Liberty, Logan county, Ohio, about 1867, aged 76, leaving a large family, of whom

30. Enos, the oldest, in 1875, was of West Liberty.

12. RICHARD$^3$ Jesse$^2$ Benjamin,$^1$ b. in 1795; d. Jan. 12, 1870, aged 74; m. Miss Eleanor Williams, sister of the wife of his brother Daniel. He settled in Kings Creek, Champaign county, Ohio, as a farmer. His wife, in 1876, lives with Wilson, and is aged 75.

31. Wilson, b. in 1821 or 1822; when twenty-five, he m. Miss Johnson, and has two or three sons. none m. in 1875. He was then Secretary of the Western Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Urbana, Ohio.

32. Sophia, m. Clark, and has four ch.; in Champaign county, Ohio.

33. Mary, m. Mr. Wilson, a farmer of Champaign county, Ohio; has four ch.

34. I. Newton, unm.: in Cincinnati, Ohio.

35. Lucretia, (?) m. Johnson, a farmer; of Champaign county, Ohio, and has four ch. living.

36. Watson, d. Aug. 22, 1874, at Hampton Hospital, near Fortress Monroe, Va.

37. Eliza, m. Cabel, a lumber and coal dealer in Davenport, Iowa.

38. Sarah, m. Hunter, a farmer in Logan county, Ohio; has three ch.

39. Emma, unm.; in 1875, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

40. Lenora, m. Thomas, a dealer in twine and cordage in Cincinnati, Ohio; has one child.

41. Clara, m. Taylor, of Pittsburgh, Penn.; has one ch.

13. WILLIAM H.$^3$ Jonathan$^2$ Benjamin.$^1$ The "History of Champaign county, Ohio," says he was b. in Guilford county, N. C., in 1788. He came to Ohio in 1811, and lived there until 1863, aged 75. "He was," says the author, "one of the excellent men of the earth."

42. Lemuel, of Kennard, Champaign county, Ohio.

43. Samantha.

William H. is said to have made collections for his genealogy, but I have not been able to get them.

THE BALDWINS

OF THE EASTERN SHORE OF VIRGINIA

Cotton, Mrs. Jane (Baldwin)

This is a copy of a manuscript written by Jane Baldwin Cotton in 1928 as the result of many years of painstaking research and is reproduced in its original form for the Baldwin Family as a tribute and memorial.

n. p.

LCJ 25 Mr 41

The Baldwin family of the Eastern Shore of Virginia, i.e., Northampton and Accomac Counties and later of Maryland and that of New England trace their ancestry to the same stock in England as will appear from extracts which follow and which are taken from the will of Richard Baldwin and are to be found in the Congressional Library in a work entitled "Notes on Ancestry of Sylvester Baldwin". Published by David Clapp & Co. "Will of Richard Baldwin of St. Leonard". Extracts from the principal Register of Her Majesty's Court of Probate. In the Prerogative Court of Canterbury. Will Proved Nov. 29, 1636.

and following is this:

"Crest from Lipscombs History of Buck"

"Three Oak Leaves slipped Acorned proper. They thus appear in Middle Temple London as arms of Richard Baldwin although unacorned and in 1760 in Chapel of St. Leonard, upon the Tomb of Samuel Baldwin formerly of parish of Aston Clinton to be a Chevron Ermine between oak leaves. Such differences are not uncommon in old armes. The Crest is a squirrel Sejant. The Doomsday Book says the name of Baldwin in the vicinity of Dundridge dates before the Conquest. As our concern in this paper lies in the Baldwins of Maryland and the Eastern Shore of Virginia with only a few references to the branch in New England, I will pass on to them.

Sylvester Baldwin died June 21, 1638 on the passage to America in the Ship "Martin". Richard, son of Sylvester and his wife Sarah Bryan, who was baptised August 26th, 1623 in the parish Aston Clinton Bucks Co., England, became the New England Emigrant and a prominent person in Connecticut. Quite an amount of data relative to him can be found in the Connecticut Historical Collections, in "The History of the Old Town of Darby" by Samuel Orcutt and Ambrose Beardsley M.D. and other accepted authoritative sources. Merely for the purpose of showing relationship have the references to the Connecticut Baldwins been mentioned, but no attempt at connecting the persons of that name who settled on the Western Shore of Virginia will be made.

As has been noted in the will of Richard Baldwin 1636, he mentions a brother John; also John, son of said brother.

On March 18th, 1648 John Baldwin first appeared in Northampton Co., Va., and apparently was the nephew John of this Richard. He obtained a grant of land 300 Acres for transporting six persons into the province. In Oct. 1656 he obtained 15A. and 60 Perches lying in James Island between Main River and Back River at the Old Block House. (Vide Book 3, P. 118 State Library, Richmond, Va.)

In December 1650 John Wilkins of Northampton Co., made a deed of gift of cattle to John Baldwin and his wife (V. 111 P. 233, Northampton Co. Records).

In 1661, 1662, 1663 various tracts of land on South River, Anne Arundel Co., Maryland were surveyed for John Baldwin. John Baldwin had married Lydia, daughter of Jno. and Anne Wilkins of Northampton County. This is shown by the fact that Anne Voss, formerly Anne Wilkins, widow of John, made a deed of gift, 15, May 1671 by which she gave certain personalty to her grand-children John Baldon (Baldwin) Jr., Margaret, eldest daughter of John Baldon (Baldwin) Sr., now wife of Thomas Crutchley, and to other two daughters of John Balding (Baldwin) Sr., by name Lydia and Ruth Balding (Baldwin). (V. xvi p. 22 Northampton).

All these children of John Baldwin, Sr., made excellent alliances. Margaret's second marriage after death of Thomas Crutchley was to John Metcalf. Lydia married 1st Thomas Watkins, 2nd ( ) Bittison, and Ruth married Philip Howard. John, Jr., or John Baldwin "gentleman", married Hester Larkin (Nicholson) daughter of a wealthy planter, Thomas Larkin. His sons, Colonel John, 3rd, James and Thomas inherited and became possessors of much property; Colonel John principally in Cecil, Kent and Baltimore Counties; James in Prince George, and Thomas in Anne Arundel. Also they figured largely in affairs of the province in various capacities, church and civil and military.

It appears that John Baldwin, Sr., (d. 1684) became a Quaker and doubtless that was the reason he moved from Virginia to Maryland. The non-conformist act in force compelled all persons not members of the Church of England to quit that colony. So Maryland became the refuge of many Puritans and Quakers. In his will probated in 1684, he gives both money and other personalty to the Quakers or Friends and in that of his second wife, probated in 1684 (his first wife Lydia (Wilkins) having died) whose name was Elizabeth, the widow of George Dorrell and mother of Paul Dorrell, various bequests show that she too was a zealous quaker. In the Public Library, Boston, is the following item from a report, entitled "Sufferings of the Poor Quakers". This report had been sent from America to London and there printed in 1661.

"John Baldwin fined for not training", p. 30. In this same Library I found the following: "On the fifth day of the eleventh month (1672) we had a meeting at John Baldwin's at South River where were many friends and other people who were come together upon the occasion of a dispute which one Henry Pierrepoint had challenged Disunte, who was a kind of a Fifth Monarchy man. The first thing we had to prove which had assumed was that the Scriptures were the only Rule to try all things by in matters of Faith and doctrine. About which we had a great discourse: and we proved that the Patriarchs had Faith and a Rule for Faith before any Scriptures we have were written: and showed what was their rule. We spent several hours in Dispute about the other three things, which he had affirmed; but there is a book in Manuscript which is an answer to them all, therefore shall omit any further mentioning of it here".

This from "The Truth exalted in the Meetings of That Eminent and Faithful Servant of Christ, John Burnyeat".
Thomas Northcott. London, 1691.

The Quaker proclivities of the family did not long persist and John Sr., appears to have been the only one of his own generation to have been of that religion.

Richard, son of Sylvester, having been the progenitor in New England and John, son of John (circum), the progenitor in Maryland, it does not seem strange that a grandson (circum) of Sylvester and son of the Henry referred to in the first item of the will of his great-uncle Richard, should later appear in Maryland. To Henry, son of Sylvester, his uncle had given landed estate in England and it does not seem that he ever came to America as far as my research had led, but Henry Baldwin living on South River, Anne Arundel County, Maryland where the family properties were situated, appears with his wife Mary, at All Hallows Parish Church of England, bringing three children for baptism. Edward, born October 13, 1725;

Henry, born December 27, 1726 and Mary, born August 24, 1727. As no previous record in which Henry is mentioned as being in Maryland has been found, it would seem that he was probably married in England. Not as yet having access to the English records, who Mary was cannot be stated. Circumstantial evidence points to his marriage in 1724, recorded evidence says he was born in 1700. He died a young man in 1730.

His eldest son, Edward, whose properties appear as being "Howard's First Choice", a part of "Howard and Porters Range" and a part of "Howards Addition" all of which lie side by side, married Susan Meek, daughter of James Meek (d. 1736) and his wife, Elizabeth. James was son of John (died 1712) and Mary (Boice?) Meek, and John was son of the well known Guy Meek (d. 1682) and Rachel, his wife.

Henry Baldwin, born 23rd of December, 1753 and died 5th of October 1792, married first Sarah Rawlings, widow of Francis and daughter of ----- Hall. After her death, he married Maria Graham Woodward, daughter of Wm. Garrett Woodward (1725-1799), of Baltimore County and his wife Dinah Warfield. Henry Baldwin, who was called "Harry", joined the Continental forces and served in General Smallwood's Brigade. In Scarf's "Washington's Correspondence", General Washington writes of Mr. Henry Baldwin as being a very useful man as Engineer and that he would ask Congress for an increase in his pay -- previously Henry Baldwin had also served as quarter-master; later we find his title that of Lieutenant in lists of officers of the War. There is also a note in the Revolutionary Muster Rolls as follows: "Captain Baldwin says a certain man named Hall deserted on his way Southward", and throughout the records of Anne Arundel County also his title is given as Captain. At the dissolution of the Army, certain lands in the Western part of the State were awarded him. He was an original member of the Society of the Cincinnati. By his marriage with Sarah (Hall) Rawlings he had two daughters, Sallie and Julie (d.y.). Sallie married Denton Hammond of Howard County, had children Elizabeth, who married Richard Cromwell of Anne Arundel County; Camilla, who married Dr. Herbert of Howard Co., and Mathias of Howard County. By his second marriage to Maria Graham Woodward he had a daughter, Eliza, who married Thomas Worthington of Howard County, and a son, William Henry, born September 11, 1792, died 6th of April 1874. After the death of her husband, Henry Baldwin, his widow, Maria Graham, married Augustine Gambrill and sold off her Baldwin properties.

William Henry Baldwin married the 7th of October, 1817, Jane Maria Woodward, daughter of Colonel Henry Woodward and his wife Eleanor Williams Turner, widow of Richard Warfield Turner. Col. Henry Woodward (born 1770 - died 1822) was the son of William Woodward, Jr., (died 1807) of Baltimore County, and Jane Ridgely (died 1817). Colonel Thomas Williams, the father of Eleanor Williams (Turner) Woodward, was a very celebrated man, serving in the Revolutionary War as Lieutenant, Major, Lt.-Colonel and Colonel. In civil affairs, he was Justice of the County Court of Prince George County, High Sheriff of the same County, and active in many capacities.

The ramifications which would include as antecedents of the Baldwins of Anne Arundel County have at this point so multiplied that to go any further back would necessarily include genealogies of nearly every important family of that County, Howard, Cecil and Baltimore Counties, so the descendants of Judge William Henry will only be considered. Born at "Rising Sun" or "Brotherly Love", he enlisted in the service of the government in the War of 1812, and under the command of Commodore Lewis Warrington was on the ship "Peacock" on Lake Erie. His grave was last year marked by the Society of the War of 1812. After the War, he resigned from the navy. His resignation was accepted July 14, 1817 when he retired into private life in Anne Arundel Co., and was married to Jane Maria Woodward. To every effort for better education and higher standards of life generally he gave strong, intelligent support. He filled various civil positions and his title of Judge, obtained by being Judge of the Orphans Court of his native County, persisted throughout his life. As State Inspector of tobacco, early in his married life he lived at the Indian Landing on the Severn River, Anne Arundel Co., and later moved to his home "Bunker Hill" where he remained during the rest of his life. He was a Whig in politics and later a Republican, and during the Civil War was opposed to secession. William Henry Baldwin and his wife, Jane Maria (Woodward) had a large family -- seven sons and four daughters.

| Charles Winterfield Minister and Doctor of Divinity - now of Baltimore. | married, 1st-Annie C. Hopkins, 2nd-Annie M. Thomas, both of Baltimore. |

His (William Henry) four daughters were:

|---|---|
| Maria Eleanor | married, Hon. Benjamin B. Gantt. |
| Elisa Ann | died unmarried at nineteen years. |
| Martha Elizabeth | married, Rev. N. B. Morgan, D.D. |
| Juliet Catherine | died unmarried at twenty-one years. |

The above sons, i.e., William Henry, Jr., C. Columbus and Summerfield, all became members of Woodward, Baldwin & Co., Wholesale Dry Goods Commission Merchants of Baltimore and New York and all were prominent and successful men -- not only as merchants, but in other positions in the community and national life.
C. Columbus was at one time President of the Louisville and Nashville R. R. He was a strong supporter of Cleveland and always a democrat.

Richard and Springfield elected to remain in Anne Arundel County. Besides being planters, they held various offices in the County's gift and were outstanding characters in public affairs and in all moral and educational movements of the County and State. Rignal Woodward was a well known lawyer of the Baltimore bar and Rev. Charles Winterfield, still living, is an eminent minister and Doctor of Divinity.

Of the descendants of the above, William Henry, Jr. and Mary P. Rodman had six sons and three daughters. None of his sons survive and none had descendants. His eldest daughter, Mary, died young. The two surviving daughters are Mrs. William Kelly Prentiss, of Princeton, and Miss Sarah Rodman Baldwin, of Baltimore.

Two of his sons died young, i.e., Charles Gambrill and Gordon; two died in early majority, i.e., Samuel Rodman and William Henry of W. H., and two survived their father who died October 1902. Of those two, Frank married Kate Harrison Thompson, widow of Gough Thompson of Baltimore County and died without heirs, and Carroll died unmarried. All four sons last named were of the Woodward, Baldwin & Co. firm.

Richard Baldwin and Sophronia Jane (Furlong) had six sons and three daughters. Their eldest son, William Henry of R., entered the office of Woodward, Baldwin & Co. in Baltimore, and later was transferred to the New York Office. He became senior partner and his ambition,often expressed, to be "a great merchant" was realized. His great business capacity and strength of character, combined with his sense of honor, entitled him to the encomiums which were heaped on his name when he died on May 6th, 1930. He died unmarried.

2nd, Henry Furlong, was an eminent civil engineer and a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Gifted with a talent for organization and as Chief Engineer, he was with the Chicago and East Illinois, the Chicago and Alton, and the Erie Railroads. He also was prominent in reorganizing the DuPont de Nemours Co., where he was one of the Vice Presidents. After a period with that Company, he again entered the railroad world and became Chief Engineer of the Oregon and Washington Railroad. He married Pauline du Pont and left three children -- one son, Nenry du Pont, and two daughters, Paulina du Pont Fessenden, of Boston and Colorado Springs, and Margaretta du Pont.

3rd and 4th, Richard, Jr. and C. Columbus, were twins. Richard also became a civil engineer and, in New York, was one of the engineers of the Croton Aqueduct and afterwards of various engineering projects. Socially delightful and brilliant, as well as talented, he made a lasting name for himself.

He married Gertrude E. Everett, but left no children. C. Columbus was also a merchant and a partner in Woodward, Baldwin & Co. He lived many years in Shanghai, China, where by ability and great charm, "he made business history in the east" to quote a comment of the newspapers. He married Mary E. Pease and left two sons, C. Columbus, Jr., and Charles Elliott.

5th, George Gambrill, died in infancy.

6th, Lewis Warrington, the only surviving son of Richard and Sophronia Jane, is President of the Missouri Pacific Railroad. After graduating at Lehigh University, he immediately entered upon railroad work -- at first in the Engineering Department, later in the Executive. He had successively been connected with the Illinois Central, as Vice President; with the Central of Georgia, and again with the Illinois Central, as Vice President. During the Great War, he was one of the Regional Directors of railroads. He married Marye E. Dodge and has three children -- Richard, Roccena D. and L. Warrington, Jr.

The daughters of Richard and Sophronia Jane are Jane, wife of Dr. Frederic J. Cotton, of Boston, and Miriam, widow of Augustus Gambrill Cooke, of Waterbury, Maryland. The third daughter, Fannie Louisa, died young (1885).

C. Columbus Baldwin of New York, 3rd son of William Henry (1) and Sally Roman, had two sons -- James Dixon Roman and Columbus Calvert, and one daughter, Louise. His sons both died young men, unmarried, and his daughter is Mrs. William B. Bristow, of New York and Newport.

Summerfield, of Baltimore, 4th son of Wm. H. Baldwin (1) and his first wife, Frances Cugle, left two sons -- 1st, William Woodward, lawyer of New York and Baltimore, and one of the Assistant Secretaries of State during President Cleveland's first administration; a notably able and brilliant personality. He married first, Katherine Willard, by whom he has one son, Summerfield, 3rd. His second wife was Laura Leffingwell. Summerfield's (1) second son, Summerfield, Jr., is senior partner of the old firm of Woodward, Baldwin & Co., and is one of the most prominent and influential men of his City and State. He married Laura Hanson (Pennington), but they have no children. The daughter of Summerfield (1) by his marriage with Frances Cugle is Louise, wife of Edward N. Rich, of Baltimore. Summerfield (1), by his second marriage with Juliet Gambrill Sewell, left two surviving sons, Charles Gambrill and Willard Augustine; also one daughter, Dorothy Sewell, now wife of James Garretson, lawyer, of New York City. Charles Gambrill (Baldwin), a prominent member of the Baltimore bar, married Frances Morse, and they have one son, John Ashby. Willard Augustine, of New York, member of the firm of Woodward, Baldwin & Co., married first to Margaret Stirling, by whom he has one daughter, Juliet, and second to Isabel Bruce of Yonkers, New York, by whom he has one son.

Springfield, fifth son of William H. Baldwin (1) died unmarried.

Rignal Woodward, sixth son of same, and Rosa B. Hall had five sons and one daughter, i.e., Rignal W. Jr., Morgan Hall, Springfield, Wilson, Severn and Rosa. Of these, Severn died a very young man, unmarried. Rignal W. inherited his father's profession as a lawyer in Baltimore and is also President of the Marion Manufacturing Co., of Marion, North Carolina. He married Augusta Hopkins and has two sons, Rignal W. and Ludlow H. Morgan Hall, a merchant at Waterbury, Maryland, married Olive Hill, of Greenville, South Carolina, and has one daughter, Mary Hamilton, and one son, Morgan Hall, Jr. Springfield graduated as civil engineer at Lehigh University and has held positions with several railroads. He married and has one daughter, Rosa Hall, and one son, Springfield, Jr. Wilson also is a successful technical man of Pittsburgh. He is married, but has no children.

Rev. Charles Winterfield, seventh son of Wm. Henry, by his marriage with Annie Hopkins, has one daughter, Maria.

It will be seen that I have made no attempt at tracing the Baldwin descents of the Western Shores of Virginia, but have confined myself to one line of the Maryland family. The name is not uncommon at this date in Virginia, the Carolinas, Georgia and in other states. Their ancestors will doubtless be found to be those who came to the main or Western part of Virginia and whose names can be found in lists of arrivals and in the sparse records of the Isle of Wight, Surrey, York, Rappahannock and Amelia Counties.

It may be worth adding here that the ancestry of Judge William Henry Baldwin may also be traced to the original John through a maternal source. His mother, Maria Graham Woodward, was daughter of William Garrett Woodward and Dinah Warfield. Dinah Warfield was daughter of Alexander Warfield and Dinah Davidge.

Alexander Warfield was a son of Richard Warfield, Jr. and Ruth Crutchley, who, in turn, was daughter of Thomas Crutchley and Margaret Baldwin, daughter of John and Lydia (Wilkins) Baldwin.

The Inventory of ROBERT BAKER is in Prince Edward Will Book 1:316-318. At the very end of this inventory, there is an entry:

Mrs. Baldwin's 1/3 part 917-4-8

(The total valuation was 2751 (or 2757?)-14-0

The inventory was returned at May Court 1780.

Torrence lists wills for Robert Baker in Prince Edward County in 1759 and 1773.

I forgot to write it down when I was reading this film, but I believe this inventory was stated to have been turned in by the executors, which would mean that there was a will.

Dear Mary,

and Lunenburg

I hope the thickness of this packet has not excited you, for there is really nothing exciting here - Just things I wanted you to have for your files. I have been receiving films from Charlotte and Prince Edward Counties, and have copied all the BALDWIN things I could find. I coped two or three NUNNELLY things for you, although at a casual glance, they don't seem to contain anything of real interest. Incidentally, these were not all the Nunnelly entries I came across, but only a representative sample.

Although I did make photocopies of most of the Baldwin documents, I am not sending copies to you because for the most part they are very poor copies. I am just sending abstracts. If you would like copies, do let me know and I will send the best copies I can make.

I am beginning to speculate about who's who among all these Baldwins and would be interested to have you comments and criticisms.

Your line, of course, is William Baldwin who m. Elizabeth ________. I wonder if she is the daughter, Elizabeth Balding, named in the will of Thomas HOOD in Raleigh Parish, Amelia County, dated August 1, 1757? Or, alternatively, could Elizabeth (HOOD) BALDING be the wife of John Baldwin who died in Amelia County in 1770? My speculation is that this couple - John (d. 1770) and wife Elizabeth - are parents of your William, father of Martha. My reason is that your William definitely had a brother named George, and this John who died in 1770 had sons named George and William.

I have "decided" that the Samuel in whom I am interested, as well as the Benjamin in whom I am interested, both are sons of William Baldwin (d. in Prince Edward County in 1799) who married Ann Wimbish. This is SPECULATION ONLY. I haven't had time to try to prove it, and my reasons for thinking it are very flimsy. First of all, as to Benjamin - In William's will in 1799 in Prince Edward County, he gave his son Benjamin one slave and sixty pounds cash - no land. The Benjamin in whom I am interested was already in Georgia in 1799, so it makes sense that he would get money and no land. Also, this Ben married Sarah GARDEN, and there is a GARDEN-WIMBISH connection, so it seems reasonable that the Benjamin who married Sarah Garden should be the son of the William who married Ann Wimbish.

My reason for thinking that the Sam in whom I am interested (who died in Prince Edward in the 1840's) was son of this William and Ann Wimbish are even flimsier. Sam (d. 1840's) was quite well off financially, and this William (d. 1799) left his son Samuel 900 acres of land - certainly a good start toward affluency.

Dear Mary,

This note concerns our BALDWIN research. Your note last summer lifted my spirits! So often the person to whom one sends information fails to respond - and to have an indirect recipient send such a gracious note is unique in my experience. Thank you.

I have come across a couple of other things concerning the Nottoway County Baldwins and want to send them along, though they aren't as obviously helpful as the Marthey Nunnely power of attorney.

1-THE NORTH CAROLINA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY JOURNAL. Vol. III, No. 4, November 1977. "Some Migrations from Virginia into North Carolina" by Virginia Pope Livingston. p. 231. 14 Apr 1812. REBECCA BURKS of Rockingham Co., N.C. to WILLIAM BALDWIN of Nottoway Co., Va., for $40, all her right to 64 acres in Prince Edward, bounded by STEPHEN DUPUY. (Prince Edward Deed Book 14, p. 669)

[This must be the Rebecca, daughter of William Baldwin, who married Charles Burks in Amelia County in 1778.]

2. VIRGINIA STATE LIBRARY BULLETIN V., Nos. 2-4 (192-) [I failed to get the date! mg] Nottoway County Deed Book 1, p. 385. 1793. Samuel Baldwin of Charlotte County and Elizabeth Baldwin of Nottoway County, to George Baldwin of Nottoway County, land on West Creek, bounded by John Blankenship, William Rogers and John Gilliam, being part of tract late the property of William Baldwin.

I have now learned that the Baldwin in whom I am most interested in Samuel Baldwin who died in P.E. County ca 1844. He had married Mary Womack - I am at the office and don't have all this with me, but I believe the date was 1799. His will in Prince Edward names his children as: Almira (she was b. ca 1801 and m. John Diggs Spragins of Charlotte co., VA); Ann E. (she m. Dr. Elkins/Elcans); William, Albert, and Samuel. Of course, I am very interested in learning who this Samuel's parents were - He could even be the Samuel mentioned in the above Nottoway County deed, and if he is, then he must be closely related to your Marthan-perhaps her brother. On the other hand, Samuels and Williams abounded in this family, so it will be difficult ever to know who's who.

I am also interested in Benjamin Baldwin who m. Sarah Garden in Charlotte County in 1785, and who settled in Wilkes/Oglethorpe cos., GA. My interest in this man is only because he was named as executor and "friend" by my ancestor, Samuel Cochran, who died in Wilkes County, GA in 1791. I have tried for years to trace back further back on Samuel Cochran, and am interested in everyone he was ever connected with. [I started this a week ago and never got to finish it. Am now writing on 12/20 & am going to stop so I can give it to the postman.)

Merry Christmas!

Dear Mary,

I have falled so far behind in answering letters, I feel I might never catch up! First, of course, there was Christmas - but your nice letter and enclosures were after that. Then came one of my busiest times of the year at work. I work at Memphis State University, and we have just begun a new semester. That's always a very hectic time for me. Things are now getting back to normal, though, and I'm trying to get to my own "work".

Thank you so much for the Baldwin information and photocopies. I was glad to have them. I feel sure that the two Baldwins in whom I am interested (for entirely different reasons) - Benjamin, who went to Georgia, and Samuel, who died in Charlotte County, VA in 1844 - are part of this family, but I can't yet say what the relationship is.

I have a Charlotte County film (Will Books 1 and 2) at the library now to start reading Saturday. (I don't know whether or not you are aware that you can order films of Virginia records on ILL from the Virginia State Library. It takes a long time (usually) for the film to arrive, but it is one way to get the Virginia information one needs. I have gotten a film in two weeks, but this one took three months and that's more typical.) I don't expect to find any Baldwin information on this film, but I know that on the next one - which I have on order - there is a will for Caleb Baldwin. If anything of interest shows up, I'll let you know.

Thank you for the COCHRAN hints and the offer to send more. (1) I know about the Samuel who was in North Carolina. I think I have pretty much eliminated any possibility that he was mine, though there may be a connection. (2) The Samuel who is a DAR Patriot is mine. Thank you for your offer to get his papers for me, but I do have them, as well as some supporting material which Mims Cochran Buchanan (who joined on him) sent to a distant cousin of hers who was also a distant cousin of mine, and copies of which got passed on to me. [Actually, in the supporting material, I have found quite a few inaccuracies, but in the basic facts, Mrs. Buchanan's researcher was correct, so that her application to the DAR was correct so far as I know.] It is this Samuel who named "friend Benjamin Baldwin" as executor of his will.

Sometime in the future, when I have time to go over my files, would you mind ordering some DAR applications for me on other lines? I have several I would very much like to have. And do you know how to order the "proofs" that were submitted? There's one line in particular for which I really need to see these supporting papers, but I know that I, as a non-member, cannot get them.

Thanks again for the BALDWIN documents. I'll let you know if I learn anything more.

Sincerely, Mary Gregg

Mary

The following pages concerning the Baughn Family have been copied from a booklet in possession of James Baughn, Washington C.H., Ohio R.D. 3. This book was prepared by Lorene F. Barker, 865 Park Avenue, Baltimore, Md. and dated Aug. 2, 1954, and represents some 15 years study on her part. It contains thousands of names of Baughans all over the U.S.A. The largest number being the North Carolina branch of the family. Others are the Ohio branch, Texas, Georgia, Indiana, California etc. The numbering system makes it easier to trace family lines. For instance, in the Ohio line all numbers start with "5" and signifies that all are descended from Mordecai Baughan. His children are: 51, 52, 53 etc. grandchildren, 511, 512, or 521, 522, 531, great grandchildren, 5111, 5112, 5211, 5311 etc. The North Carolina branch all start with figure "2". California with "7". Indiana with "9". I have not attempted to change any part of this record with the exception that on page 5 an obvious error concerning Margaret Baughn and Abraham Dawson carries a correction with my initials H.D.E.

SOME GENEALOGICAL RECORDS OF THE BAUGHN FAMILY--

1. JAMES BOUGHAN, married Thomasie ______?
died before 1703. He recieved a grant of 250 acres of land in old Rappahannock County, Virginia, On June 9, 1658, adjoining a tract of land surveyed for Samuel Parry or Perry. Parry's grant had been issued Feb. 7, ~~162~~ 1652 for 1250 acres in Lancaster County, on the south side of Pascation Creek. In 1663, James Baughan mortgaged his cattle and tobacco crop to Andrew Gilson, and in 1668 he sold 100 acres to Thomas Troth or Troath.

A widow Baughan and James Baughan are mentioned in a land grant in Rappahannock County dated Oct. 21, 1687, to William Leake and others. Members of this Leake family migrated to Leaksville, North Carolina at a later date. This grant of land was on the ~~east~~ so,east side of a branch called Claypatch Branch, and adjoined that land of Widow and James Baugha and Parry's land.  James and Thomasie Baughan had three known children:

11. HENRY BAUGHAN, died between 1731 and 1738. He was married twice, his first wife unknown, his second, was Sarah, maiden name unknown.(It may have been Edmondson.) He wrote his will Jan 20, 1731, which was proved in Essex County,Va. May 16, 1738.At this date he had children who were still young by his second wife.

111. Capt James Baughan, sheriff in Essex County, Va., 1734; will dated Nov.28,1748 proved in Essex County, March 21, 1748 (1749 present style.) His executors were his wife Mary, and Thomas Barker, who had married his sister, Ann(Boughan.) He married Mary Tyler, daughter of Richard and Susann Tyler of Essex County.

1111. James Boughan.

1112. Susannah Boughan, married Thomas Croxton.

11121. Mary Croxton, married James Stodghill.

111211. Thomas Stodghill, married Nancy Shelburne. They went to Shelby County,Ky., about 1810.

1112111.Jane Stodghill, married Squire Dooley and moved to Boone County in Indiana, about 1836.

11121111. A Daughter, married ____, Stevenson.

111211111. Kenyon Stevenson, the correspondant, who furnished this information and supplied above named wills.

Aristipus Boughan.

The tax lists of Pittsylvania shows the name Arastripes Baghan as a tithe with William Candler and a negro slave, Chester, on the list of Archibald Gordon. This list is printed in the Virginia Magazine of History. Vol. 24, page 184; also in Clements History of Pittsylvania County, page 281. This reference proves that Aristipus had gone from Essex County and settled in Pittsylvania County by 1767. The difference in spelling of the name could be due to the lack of education on the part of the person who recorded these things by longhand, or due to phonetic spelling, since at that time, there were no dictioaries for spelling.

Essex Deed Book 27, page 200, shows that on November 29,1755, Aristapus was a witness to a deed given by Hezekiak Brown and his wife, Sally, to Samuel Croxton. Thus we can see that Aristapus remained in Essex County at least 6 years after his father's will was probated on March 21, 1749, but that before another 12 years he had gone "west" to settle in Pittsylvania County, which in 1767 was wild frontier country. It was only a step, so to speak, for him to move on to Bedford County, which, in 1781, became Campbell County, and there to make his will and die in 1786. He was probably born during the 1720s, and so only in his 60s when he died. (See will of Aris Boughan, 1786.)

BAUGHN'S OF FAYETTE COUNTY, OHIO.

About 1811/1812, five brothers, Simeon, Lystra, Henry, Moses, and Mordecai Baughn went to Ohio from Rockingham County, North Carolina, where they settled for awhile after leaving Virginia. In Virginia they may have lived either in Essex or Culpepper County, or in both, as those two counties contain the greater number of records.

The history of the Wall, Reynolds, Mason, and Fewell families give them as having gone to North Carolina from Virginia with the above named families which were closely connected by intermarriage with one another.

The first record as recorded in the Rockingham County is a deed for Henry Baughan in 1797.

The above five brothers were sons of Mordecai Baughan who left a will recorded in Culpepper County, Va., in 1792. In that will he named his wife, Eve, and children as follows: 1. Henry, 2. Sarah, 3. Susanna, 4. Lystra, 5. Moses, 6. Catherine, 7. Jeremiah, 8. Mordecai, 9. Simeon, and 10. Joel. -Eve Baghan's will dated 1835 named all the above children and Jefferson and Mordecai, her grandsons, sons of Joel, deceased.

5. Mordecai Baughan, will recorded in Culpepper County., Va. in 1792.:married Eve _____?
Children:-

51. Henry Baughan, born Oct 4, 1772; died Jan 5, 1854. married Feb 20, 1793 in Culpepper County, Elizabeth Wall, born Feb 23, 1771; died Oct 5, 1859. Both Henry and Elizabeth (Wall) Baughan are buried in Sugar Creek Baptist Church Cemetery, at Washington C.H., Ohio. He served in the war of 1812, as a private in Wm. Wilson's Company of the Chio Militia. (Page 15, Roster OhioSoldiers) Marriage recorded in Culpepper Co. Va with Wm. Mason, officiating minister. (Marriage records Vol. 1, page 13.)

All of their children, except Lucy, were born in North Carolina. She was born in Chio.

511. Sarah Baughan, born Oct 13, 1795; died Feb 22, 1873; married Apr. 13, 1813 Jacob Bush Sr., He was son of Jacob Bush I. , born in North Carolina of German descent and was one of the early settlers of Fayette County, Ohio.

5111. Sarah Bush, born in Fayette Co., Ohio.; died Mar.20, 1918; married Simeon Fult of same county. In 1869, this family moved to Missouri, where they all lived except one who resided in Indian Territory.

named in the 1786 will, and, if so, is this Henry the same as the one who married Patsy Whitley in 1805. Documentary proof of these conjectures would establish the North Carolina branch of the family back to the land grant to James Boughan in 1658.

One note of interest is that Patrick Weston Baughn, son of Henry and Patsy Baughan, who settled in Savannah, Georgia, had a son named Ariss or Arris who was killed when he was young. Patrick was the progenitor of a large family of Baughnsin Savannah who are cousins of the North Carolina family.

112. Henry Boughan.
113. Ann Boughan, married Thomas Barker.
114. a daughter who married Wm. Harper.
115, a daughter who married John Wall.

12. John Boughan, will 1697, named wife Mary ----?
13. James Boughan, will 1697, called Major James Boughan. He was a prominent citizen of Virginia and a member of the House of Burgess from Essex County.

THE NORTH CAROLINA BAUGHAN'S

This record began with the names of 14 children of one Henry Baughan as given by his grandson, Richard Alexander Baughan.. A casual study of records in the courthouse at Wentworth, Rockingham County, North Carolina, shows that during the first few years of the 1800's there were two Henry Baughan's who were no doubt of the same generation. Both migrated to North Carolina from Virginia, and at least one of them as early as 1797.

One of these Henry's married Elizabeth Wall in Culpepper County, Virginia, and about 1811 moved from North Carolina to Ohio where he was the progenitor of the family in Washington Court House. Henry, the ancestor of the North Carolina branch of the family, marin 1805, Patsey Whitlow in Campbell County, Virginia. This Henry and wife are buried in family graveyard on Mayo Mt. east of Mayodan, North Carolina. This Henry's father is given as James Baughan,.

(Father of Henry Baughan who emigrated to Ohio, is listed as Mardicai Baughan) H.D.E. Henry Baughan, who emigrated to Ohio, and his wife Elizabeth Wall Baughan are buried in Sugar Creek Baptist Cemetery near Washington C.H.,Ohio.

Dear Lynn,

Thanks so much for the Baughn Bible record. I THINK?? It is a very confusing document. I have used the 1881 History of Fayette County for much of the information concerning John Baughn and his wife, Malinda Mitchem. Now the Bible records changes some of those names and dates! Oh, my......

Malinda Mitchem was the daughter of William Mitchem and Catherine Wert. William and Catherine married on 26 Jul 1827 in Montgomery Co., VA. They moved to Ohio by 1838. Their issue:

Elizabeth m Adam Butcher in Pike Co. OH - 1846
James m Rebecca Blake in Pike Co. OH - 1849
Lucinda m Joseph Blake in Pike Co. OH - 1848
Sarah - nothing known
*Malinda m John Baughn in Fayette Co. OH - 1855
Mary - nothing known
William Harrison m Ella Ann Conner in Fayette Co. OH - 1867
(William and Ella are my great-grandparents)

In trying to find out about my great-great grandparents, William and Catherine Wert Mitchem, I have resorted to chasing the Baughn family because one of their children, Malinda, married John Baughn. I now know a lot more about the Baughn family than I do the Mitchem family. I keep thinking that following John and Malinda will finally unearth something about William and Catherine. It has not worked yet!

The Bible....It appears that, at least, three people must have made entries in the Bible. Moses Boughan, his book; Moses' and Sarah's birthdates and the birthdates of all of the children (with the exception of Joel) and the marriage of John and Malinda and, even their children seem to be in the same hand. The listing of Joel Boughan, born in 1816 is different, as are the entries concerning Zacariah and Sarah Youl, mother of Sarah B. Gray. We can see that the entry for Joel (1816) is the only one that uses the term A D (Anno Domini). I believe this entry was not written at the same time as the entries of the other children. Now, did this Bible belong to Joel (he is shown as Joseph on the 1850 census) and did his Bible go to his father, Moses, in 1855? Did Moses own the Bible until his death in 1863? We can guess...that Sarah, wife of Moses, was then the owner. In 1870, Sarah was living with her son, John Baughn. So the Bible is now in the household of John and Malinda Mitchem Baughn. Sarah dies in 1873. The Bible now belongs to John Baughn of Jeffersonville. Did John Baughn enter his parents, other brothers and sisters, his marriage and his first three children?? John dies in 1875. Probably the only children of Moses and Sarah still living are Sarah Gray and Matilda Jane (probably Rowell). Malinda Mitchem Baughn could have given the family Bible to Sarah Baughn Gray. The entries pertaining to Zacariah and Sarah Youl are written in the same hand and probably by someone in the Gray household after it became the property of Sarah B. Gray.

I am enclosing some items that I have found doing the Mitchem and Baughn research. They seem to add a little confusion to the story, also. According to the 1881 History of Fayette Co., Moses Baughn and wife, Sarah Yowell came to Fayette in 1832 when their son, John, was eight years old. Well, I am almost certain the Moses Vaughn of the 1830 Ohio census index is, when looking at the film, really Moses Baughn.

Another item that probably needs researched is the court suit concerning the estate of Mordecai and Eve Baughan. Apparently, Gerald Popham (married Keziah Boughan, 11 Dec 1795, Culpeper Co. VA) sued Robert Jones who married Susan Baughan (20 Jan 1797-Culpeper Co. VA). Popham's suit was filed as the administrator of Moses Baughan, deceased. This suit seems to be in 1838. Enclosing the brief mention of this action. Who is this Moses that is dead by 1838 and connected to the Mordecai and Eve estate?

Thanks again for the Bible record. I had hopes there might be a descendant of John and Malinda Mitchem Baughn who might see my query and contact me. Since most of their children died young, I suppose Sarah and maybe Matilda Jane were the only ones I could hope to hear about...I will keep looking.

Sincerely,

Mary

Now to the children listed in the Bible:

Harriet Boughan born 28 Mar 1812

Did she marry Gideon Coover - 4 Dec 1834 - Fayette Co. OH
If so, the following:
Gideon Coover
1850 Census - Madison Co. OH - Lafayette Twp - page 256
Harriet Cover
1860 Census - Madison Co. OH - Union Twp - page 316

Fayette Co. OH - Common Pleas Court - Record Book R - page 214
April, 1866
A very lengthy court record concerning the estate of Samuel Coover who died 2 Mar 1866, intestate, owning 13 parcels of land containing over 600 acres. He had no wife and no children. Included in the suit, were the children of Gideon Coover, dec'd, son of David Coover, dec'd (David, dec'd, father of Gideon, dec'd and Samuel the owner of all of the land were brothers). Gideon, dec'd, has heirs, Samuel Coover, Marion Coover and Austin Coover, of Madison Co. Ohio.

If this Harriet Coover is the dau of Moses and Sarah, she is dead by 1865 (I have not seen the probate of Moses estate, so do not if any Coover heirs are mentioned)

Mariah Boughan born 5 Aug 1813

Did she, as Maria Baughn, marry William Smith - 24 May 1832 in Fayette Co. OH

Joel Boughan born 25 Mar 1816

Is he the Joseph Baughan, age 37 and born VA, living with Moses Sarah on the 1850 census?

Joel H. Baughn born 10 Feb 1858 (1881 History) or 10 Feb 1859 per the Boughan Bible
Married Emma Shough on 24 Dec 1880 - Fayette Co. OH

In the 1881 History of Fayette Co. OH, he is called Joseph H. Baughn, both in his biographical sketch and in the sketch of John and Malinda Mitchem Baughn, as Joseph H., their son. On the 1860 census of Fayette Co. OH, he is listed as Joel, age 2 - 1870 census, listed as Joel H., age 12. The same thing occurs with the son of Moses and Sarah Yowell Baughn. The Bible lists him as Joel, but he appears on a census as Joseph. Strange.....

Dear Mary,

Thanks for all the information on the Baughan's. I'm sorry you've become so entrenched in the research that really isn't helping your cause at all. In order to keep the ball rolling and the confusing continuing, here's some more data for you. It will answer some questions you posed, but again, probably bring up some more.

I've enclosed a copy of the Moses Baughan will and the estate distribution. Also a packet of papers on "Baughn's" from Henry D. Engle I've had for many years. It has a lot of info, not all factual, but a guideline for a lot of the family. I'm not sure, but I think he may be deceased now. And finally, copies of two other papers I found in the bible. The one is very faint, and I've placed it in a clear sheet cover that's acid free in an effort to try to preserve it. It is the same width as the bible pages, but I have no idea where it came from if it wasn't a bible sheet. The larger sheet was folded in the bible, and most likely was written by Sarah Baughan Gray while it was in her possession.

Let's see. Let's start with Moses' will and distribution. It bears out your assumptions, mostly. Matilda's last name is given as Brownell, and is actually Rowell . Rebecca must have married John A. Sanderson. The distribution shows "Catharine Sanderson". This could be a mistake as I have in some other notes that she married the "Atcher". However, it is not confirmed or verified. Morgan Hidy must be a grandchild ?? by daughter Mary Ann who married Urban Hidy. I've not worked on this either. Since the will mentions son John W. and his six daughters, it is likely that Harriet has died. Son Joel is buried at the Creamer Cemetery and the head stone lists his death as 10 Nov 1859. This would coincide with the "Joseph, age 37" with Moses and Sarah on the 1850 census. However, there is a Joel H. Baughan, age 30 in the household of Martin L. Carr, Fayette Co., and 1850. This family of Martin Carr produced daughter Mary, wife of Joseph Hidy. Mary and Joseph's son Urban married Moses & Sarah's daughter Mary Ann (See the Fayette Connection, Vol. 16, No 4, 1997). I've enclosed a copy of my record. Whether these are two different men, I have no idea. Mr. Engle's papers show Simeon, brother of Moses, also had a son named Joel—just to keep things interesting. Moses S, son of Moses and Sarah is buried in the Creamer Cemetery, died in 1838, age 3. A lot of the Rowell family, Matilda and husband Joseph and several children are also buried there. Daughter Mariah is probably Ann M. in the distribution.

Regarding the census, I, too, feel the 1830 Moses Vaughn is Baughn. However, I've not been able to locate Moses in 1820. Brothers Simeon and Lyster (Lister) are in Ohio, but I haven't found Moses yet.

I'm going to keep my eyes out for information on the name of Joseph/Joel. Were they synonymous? Or a nickname of the other? On the 1860 census for John/Melinda, their son is listed as Joel, age 2 and appears in the bible as Joel H. In Dill's 1881 history of Fayette Co., he's written up as Joseph H. Baughn.

I certainly agree with your chronology on the bible. Surprising that Malinda might have given it to John's sister rather than preserving for her own children. One explanation might be that Sarah B. Gray named her first child, Joel Urban, likely after her brother.

Well, I apologize for all this 'stuff' that doesn't help you a bit. It did help me sort things out in my mind some. I wish I could offer you some ideas on the Baughn/Mitchem search, but none come to mind. I can assure you there is nothing from Sarah Baughn Gray forward to me that exists with any information that would help you. I've researched the Gray's for nearly 20 years now, and turned things upside down. Nothing has sifted out except this bible, which I was thrilled and surprised to find. If I unearth anything more as I continue to push along this history, I'll let you know.

Nice to correspond with you.

Sincerely,

Lynn

A small tombstone (11 1/2 x 12 inches) has been found in Bartlesville, Washington Co. Oklahoma. The stone has the following information:

JESSIE MAY BRIDGES
BORN / NOV. 22, 1889
DIED / MAR. 12, 1899

The person who has possession of the stone is trying to locate the cemetery where Jessie May Bridges is buried so that the stone can be returned.
If JESSIE MAY BRIDGES belongs to your family, please contact me.
Your help is needed to find the cemetery in Oklahoma or Kansas (Bartlesville is near the Kansas border in NE Oklahoma).

Grave No. 30

Noma Bell Bridges

Born: 5 April 1903

Died: 10 Jan. 1905

Daughter of James Malcolm Bridges and Amanda Needham

Next of Kin:

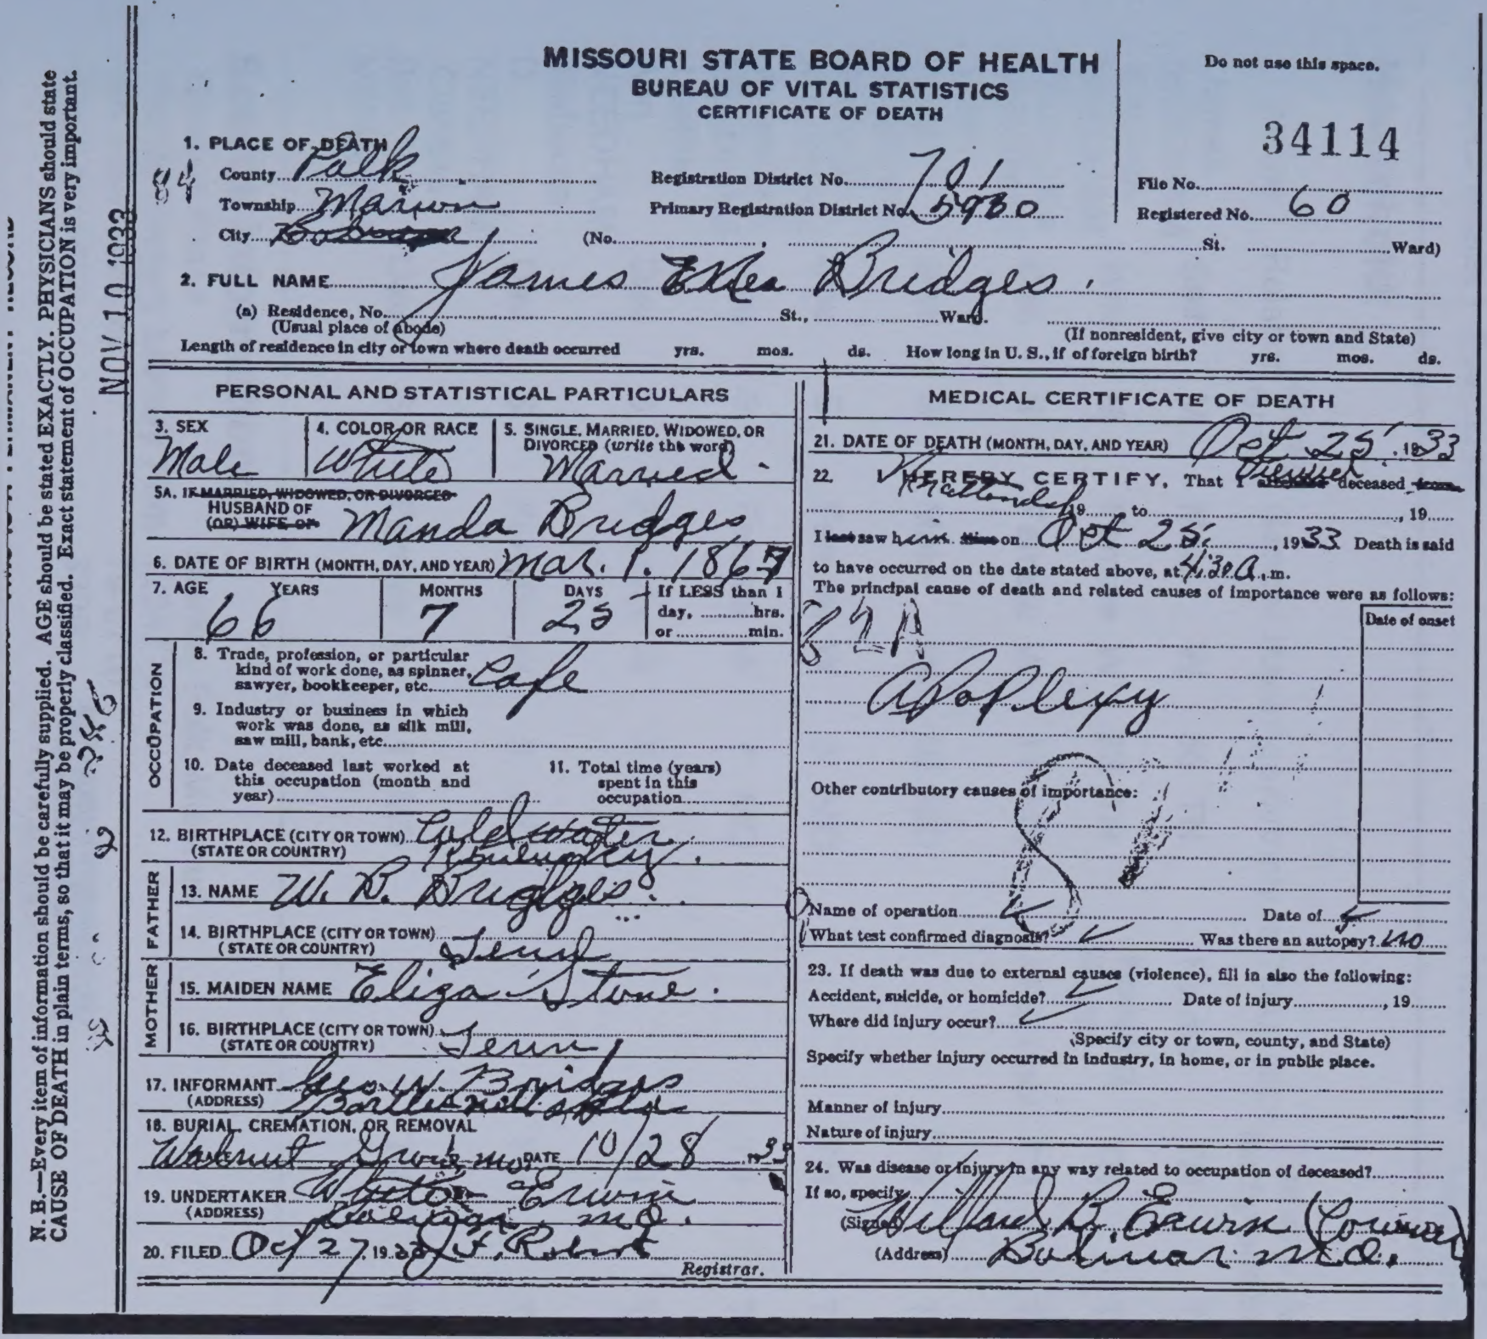
Mrs. Bess Mizer Bridges
1620 S. Dewey
Bartlesville, OK 74003

sister-in-law

Bess Mizer Bridges stated in a personal interview that she has one brother-in-law, Charles Bridges of Amarilla, Texas, age 86, who is extremely feeble and would be unable to understand the Grave Removal Permit for Noma Bell Bridges, Grave No. 30, or the relocation plan for Busby Cemetery. Bess Bridges and her husband, George Bridges(sister of Noma Bell Bridges)have always taken care of all family business, including the care of the grave at Busby Cemetery. Charles Bridges of Amarilla was unable to attend the funeral of George Bridges in June, 1975 and Bess Bridges feels that he does not remember that he had a sister and contact would cause extreme mental confusion.

Mandy Bridges, mother of Noma Bell Bridges, Grave No. 30, related the following story to her daughter-in-law, Bess Mizer Bridges on several occasions before her death:

"Noma Bell was taken by wagon from our Bridges home to Busby Cemetery. The winter was the coldest we had ever known since coming to Indian Territory. It nearly broke my heart to leave the baby there."



N. B.—Every item of information should be carefully supplied. AGE should be stated EXACTLY. PHYSICIANS should state CAUSE OF DEATH in plain terms, so that it may be properly classified. Exact statement of OCCUPATION is very important.

ATTENTION: All serious genealogists interested in Freed (of all spellings) family history studies.

Volume 1 of the FREED FAMILY FACTS NEWSLETTER (1984) is now available for all to purchase, and new participants in the 1985 Freed Family Facts (Volume 2) are invited. Volume 1 contains three indexes and 28 pages (15 characters per inch, eight lines per inch, two columns) of in-depth studies on many Freed families. The articles include the following:

History of Johannes FRIEDT/FRIED/FREED (1682-1744)
The Philip Fried Family in Maryland
Freed Settlers in the Beresan, 1839-1840
Tombstone for Abraham Freed, 1733-1682
Miscellaneous Freed Records
Freeds in "The Perkiomen Region" (Montgomery Co, PA)
Reviews or announcements of three books
The Spelling varieties of "FREED"
Wills for Early Ohio Freeds
Freeds in Christian Newcomer's Diary
Pension Records for Freeds, War of 1812 and Mexican War
Who is the Real John Freed? [Did John, the son of Johannes Fried (1682-1744) marry Susan Detweiler? The answer is NO!]
The Descendants of Paulus/Paul Friedt (featuring primarily the Jacob and Elizabeth Heffletrager Freed family)
A Berks Co., PA Minister's Record
New Hanover Lutheran Church Records (Montgomery Co., PA)
Miscellaneous Church Records, Montgomery Co.
Freeds in Moyer Book by Fretz
The Philip Freed Family, Montgomery Co., PA
Will of Adam Fritz, Dauphin Co., PA
Freed Birth Records, McLean Co., IL
Miscellaneous Records, Shenandoah Co., VA
Freed Land Records in Shenandoah Co., VA
Freeds in Russia
The Freed Families in Shenandoah Co., VA

Lists of Participants in the Freed Family Facts, with their earliest well-documented ancestor given.

The 1985 issue (Volume 2) of Freed Family Facts will feature passenger lists that include Freeds. Also included will be York County, PA, land records for Freeds, and other articles, including several articles contributed by active Freed researchers. Why not send in some of your own records to share with other Freed researchers? To order either or both Volume 1 and 2, please complete the form below:

---

Please complete the following and send to Freed Family Facts, P. O. Box 864, Delaware, OH 43015.

_____ Yes, please send me Volume 1 of Freed Family Facts, for which I am sending a check for $10.00 for each copy.

____ Yes, please include me as a participant and subscriber in the 1985 volume of Freed Family Facts (to be released in late summer or early fall) for which I include a check for $8.00. New participants, please include a list of your direct Freed ancestry including your earliest well-documented Freed ancestor (his/her dates and locations).

Please make out the checks to FREED FAMILY FACTS.

FREED FAMILY FACTS
P. O. Box 864
Delaware, OH 43015
December 10, 1984

Dear Freed Family Genealogists:

Early last week, the summer edition of the FREED FAMILY FACTS newsletter went to the printer with the expectations that the 20 page issue will be mailed next week.

Thanks to all of you for your patience! My expected short "working vacation" developed into six-seven weeks, and time was just not available in the remainder of the summer and early fall to compile and edit the newsletter as expected. And then came the index preparation. NOW I know why even currently published books often lack an index!! The body of the newsletter has been ready for weeks, but the three indexes, even with the capacity of a word processer computer and sorter, took innumerable hours of intensive labor. But the index is worth it, isn't it? (Let's hear some AMENS to that!) Now you can begin to find some associations between various families in different locations, as well as find that long lost relative in that unexpected state without reading through the entire 28 pages.

I hope you can understand the necessity for changing plans for 1985: publishing one expanded issue in late summer or early fall, rather than two issues. Winter is already upon us, and I have no more time or patience to dive right into another issue. Also, the current issue of 16 pages (plus four pages of indexes) rather than the expected 12 page issue gives you additional information for winter's study.

You will notice an improved quality in the printing of the summer issue. Photocopying was not producing the quality of printing that I had hoped for and many of you expected, so I have gone to offset printing (which will also allow us the capability of sharing pictures in succeeding issues). However, this issue cost over $200 to print, collate, bind, trim, etc. This amount does not include the postage or the additional $50 computer program that I had to purchase to prepare the index. As you know, I am not charging for my time (if I did charge for my time, even at minimum wage, I could not afford to subscribe to the publication myself), but I would like to be able to recoup some of the direct costs. Consequently note that remaining copies of Volume 1 are now available for $10.00 (winter and summer issues together), and that the 1985 issue will be $8.00. Please use the enclosed form to continue your participation in the newsletter. If you have friends interested in the Freed (of all spellings) family genealogy, please give them an enclosed order blank (even duplicate it to send out to more individuals) so that more genealogists can profit (and help all of us) in the search for our Freed family ancestors.

Sincerely yours,

Jim

WHO IS THE REAL JOHN FREED?

by

Charles A. Heiberger, Ph.D.*

In his book, "A Partial History of the Freed Family and Connecting Families", published in 1923, Jacob A. Freed claims an ancestral line through JOHN FREED 2d, to JOHANNES FRIED (1682-1744), who is my maternal great$^5$-grandfather. This JOHN FREED 2d married SUSAN DETWEILER, both Mennonites, and had seven children: JOHN, JACOB, ABRAHAM, JOSEPH, CATHARINE, SUSANNA and MARY. The birthdate of JOHN FREED 2d is unknown; he died 8 October 1777, in Franconia Twp., Montgomery Co., PA.

I propose to show that the JOHN FREED/FRIED, who is the son of JOHANNES FRIED/FRIEDT (1682-1744), is not the JOHN FREED 2d, who married SUSAN DETWEILER. The evidence for this is as follows:

A. Deed Book #15, pages 533-5, Montgomery Co., Norristown, PA. (See abstracted copy on page 14 of this issue.) JOHANNES FREED is identified as the heir to two tracts of land (100 and 123 acres), owned by his father, JOHANNES FREED, deceased, conveyed on 27 April 1748. One tract (125 acres) was sold by JOHANNES FREED and his wife, MARY, on 14 June 1788, to HENRY WISMER for 800 pounds. (NOTE: 1., wife's name is MARY, not SUSAN; 2., deed transfer was 11 years after JOHN 2d died.)

B. Lower Skippack Mennonite Church Cemetery Records, Historical Society of Montgomery Co., Norristown, PA and personal visit. There are six graves in the far left of center part of the old graveyard across the road from the church: JOHANNES FREID, who departed this life December 31, 1744, aged 62 years; JOHN FREED, died 20 January 1819, at 93 yrs, 2 months, 4 days; MARY, wife of JOHN, died 3 January, 1786 at 60 yrs, 6 months; MARY, widow of JOHN, died 20 June, 1824, at 82 yrs, 11 months, 17 days; a weatherworn large stone, probably CHRISTIANNA, wife of JOHANNES FRIEDT; and a small, unmarked stone, probably a child. (NOTE: 1., JOHN died in 1819, 44 yrs, later than JOHN 2d; 2., His wives were named MARY, not SUSAN.)

C. Bulletin of the Historical Society of Montgomery Co.--"Deaths in the Skippack Region" Ref. no. 149, Vol. 8, p. 246 (1951-3). "Old JOHANNES FRIED died January 20, 1819, age 92 yrs., 2 mo. Born about 1726 son of JOHANNES and CHRISTIANNA FRIEDT of Perkiomen, his first wife is believed to have been MARIA KOLB, daughter of PETER and ELIZABETH KOLB and sister of Nos. 74 and 225. She was born about 1726 and died January 3, 1786. By her he is said to have had four daughters: CHRISTIANA, wife of ABRAHAM EIST; MAGDALENA, wife of CHRISTIAN HALDEMAN; SARAH; and MARIA, wife of HENRY WISMER to whom on 14 January 1788, JOHANNES and MARIA FREED conveyed the homestead where they lived. His second wife (no. 244) and JOHANNES and his first wife are all buried at Lower Skippack Mennonite Cemetery. (Montgy. Dd. Bk. 15/533; Rev. CARL SMITH; KULP, p. 24)"

The preceding paragraph contains a direct quote (with capitalization of personal names added) from the reference cited. Ref. No. 244 is MARIA FRIEDIN, widow of No. 149, born 3 July 1741, died 20 June 1824. Both MARK HAAKE (related through MAGDALENA) and I believe, based on the names given to MAGDALENA's children, that JOHN'S first wife, MARIA KOLB, is really the daughter of MARTIN and MAGDALENA KOLB, not PETER and ELIZABETH. (NOTE: JOHN and MARIA had four daughters, no sons.)

The ancestry of JOHN FREED 2d, married to SUSAN DETWEILER, is not confirmed. However, in the book, "History of the Freed Family" by ISAAC G. FREED, published in 1919, he states that the JOHN FREED or HANS FRIEDT who arrived in Philadelphia on 1 August 1747, settled near Quakertown, PA, when he was about 21, married SUSAN DETWEILER, and later about 1769 acquired property and moved to Franconia Square, Montgomery Co. Further research is needed to document this claim.

NEW HANOVER LUTHERAN CHURCH RECORDS
MONTGOMERY COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA
by
James M. Freed, Ph.D.

Published by the Pennsylvania-German Society, "The Lutheran Church in New Hanover, (Falckner Swamp), Montgomery County, Pa.", by Rev. J. J. KLINE (Lancaster, PA, 1911) contains a gold mine of records for early Freeds in northwestern Montgomery Co. My thanks are expressed to Dr. Charles A. Heiberger for first calling my attention to these records in April 1981 and for his suggestion of the possible relationship of this Freed family in Montgomery County PA, to some of the Freeds in Shenandoah County, Virginia.

New Hanover Township is located in the far northwestern part of Montgomery Co, and only one township away from four other counties: Chester, Berks, Lehigh, and Bucks. The New Hanover Lutheran Church, according to references in histories of Montgomery County, is the oldest German Lutheran church in America.

The following information is provided in the order in which it is given in the publication.

MISCELLANEOUS RECORDS OF SHENANDOAH COUNTY, VIRGINIA

by James M. Freed, Ph.D.

MARRIAGE RECORDS, Shenandoah Co., VA

"Shenandoah Co., Virginia Marriage Bonds, 1771-1850", compiled by BERNICE M. ASHBY, Virgina Book Co., Berryville, VA, 1967. (I did not find these records in a search of the marriage records at the county courthouse at Woodstock, Virginia.)

p. 39, FREED, JOHN----FUNKHOUSER, ELIZ.
May 16, 1792; Bondsman: PAUL FREED.
p. 49, ZERITE, ANDREW----RIFE, ELIZ., Nov. 15, 1794.
→ p. 50, FRIED, JOHN----RIFE, REGENA, Sept. 22, 1794; Bondsman: GEO. CLOWER.
p. 90, FRIED, JOS.----RIFE, SUSANNAH, Dau. of ELIZ.
Oct. 15, 1799; Bondsman: JOHN FRIED.
p. 340, STOUFFER, ADAM----FREED, REBECCA,
Aug. 31, 1848; Bondsman: CHAS. WELSH.

Three comments on the above marriage records: (1) "ZERITE" is more often spelled "ZIRCLE" or something similar; ANDREW ZIRCLE was ELIZABETH RIFE's second husband; her first husband was CHRISTIAN RIFE. (2) GEORGE CLOWER was listed as the bondsman for four other marriages in this book (ARUTBOCK, JACOB to LAMBERT, SARAH, 1794; CARRIER, EDWARD to ARTERBURN, ELIZ., 1795; OFFNER, HENRY to CLOWER, MARY, 1806; and WALLER, CHAS. to ELSEY, KESIAH, 1790), and perhaps his marriage is also listed (CLOWE, GEO to BALCK, SUSANNA, 1783 with bondsman, JOHN ANDERSON), but I have not made any connection between either GEORGE CLOWER nor any of the other individuals just listed and any of the Freeds in Shenandoah Co., Virginia. Was he a "professional bondsman", if such existed at that time and place, or was he a good friend of these couples and in the absence of other members of their families he agreed to serve as their bondsman? (Have any of the readers of this newsletter come into contact with these names in another location, e.g., Montgomery Co., PA?) (3) REBECCA FREED is most certainly the daughter of JOSEPH and SUSANNAH RIFE FREED, as evidenced by land records (see later article in this newsletter), but she certainly appears to be marrying rather late; I rechecked the book and found that she is listed in sequence with other marriage bonds in 1848, so I think that we must conclude that the bond was in 1848. I did not find either an ADAM STAUFFER nor an ADAM STOUFFER listed in the 1850 census for Virginia.

For later articles and comments in this issue of the FREED FAMILY FACTS, it is well to include here two marriages from Rockingham County, Virginia, the next county "south" of Shenandoah Co. In HARRY M. STRICKLER's book, "Old Tenth Legion Marriages" (marriages in Rockingham Co., VA, 1778-1816, taken from marriage bonds, published in 1928 by the Joseph K. Ruebush Co.), is given the date, groom, bride, father of bride, surety ("usually the father, brother, relative, or friend of the bride or groom"), and consenting individual (the father unless otherwise indicated and was required if under 21 years of age); the name in parentheses is the signature and the name outside the parentheses is the name that was written by the clerk. For 1805 was listed: SONGER (SANGER), JACOB, MARY FREED, PAUL, CHRIS. SAYGER (SANGER), consent of PAUL FREED, witness: JACOB FREED. On page 110 of the same book is given marriages by individual ministers, including the following: JACOB SUGAR married MARY FREED, by Methodist minister, WM HUGHES, 2/29/05.

"Virginia Valley Records" by JOHN W. WAYLAND, 1965 (Genealogical Publishing Company), lists on page 33 the marriage of JOHN FREED to LUCY BILLER, Nov. 11, 1822. I believe that this list includes only Rockingham County marriages.

CHURCH RECORDS, Shenandoah Co, VA

In eastern Pennsylvania, Freeds were listed in at least the Mennonite, Reformed, and Lutheran churches. In an effort to find more records of the Freed families in Shenandoah Co, I searched some church records given below, but no Freed names were found.

Pine Church (Lutheran) (from film #8056, LDS). No Freed records were included but there were some Zerkels (Zircle) families. Also for this same church, a book, "200-Years in the Shenandoah Valley, The Settlers and Their Pine Church, with Records Made by Paul Henkle", again does not mention the Freeds, but strangely does mention the Reiff family of Montgomery Co., PA. The book also mentions that the old Pine Church stood 450 yards southeast of the present church, St. Mary's Pine Church, and further mentions that the former Pine Church graveyard (before 1868) "has been destroyed and is now a cattle yard."

Soloman's Church (film #8057, LDS). I did not record the denominational affiliation of this church, but I believe that it is (was?) Lutheran. No Freeds or Rifes were found, but there were Zerkel families mentioned.

The following churches and there records were found in the Virginia State Library (Richmond, Virginia) and again no Freeds were listed in the records (I did not look for any other family names): Zion Lutheran Church, 1786-1827; Zion Reformed Church, 1788-1826; St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 1769-1860.

Church of the Brethren: (ZIGLER, D.H., "History of the Brethren in Virginia", 1914, Elgin, Illinois, Brethren Publishing House) No Freed names in the index, but some Rife families were mentioned including Mary Rife (1792) in Rockingham Co. The book also mentions that the Flat Rock church in Shenandoah Co. was a very early church, perhaps in the 1780's or 1790's., and that the Woodstock congregation was formed to the north of Flat Rock, about 1838, with one-half of this membership being River Brethren. In another book by D. H. ZIGLER, "A History of the Brethren in Virginia", 1908, Elgin, Illinois, Brethren Publishing House, it is stated that "The Woodstock Church was organized in the year 1827 with 12 members. One half of them prior to the organization were, or belonged to, the River Brethren Church. The names of those twelve charter members are ABRAHAM HOCKMAN and wife, JOHN HOCKMAN and wife, JOHN GOCHENOUR and wife, JONATHAN GOCHENOUR and wife, GEORGE SHAVER and wife, JOHN NIHISER, and MAGDALENE BROOK. The territory extended from Stony Creek in Shenandoah County to the Potomac River." One descendant of JOHN FREED (wife REGINA RIFE) suggests that he (JOHN FREED) was a Brethren (Dunkard = German Baptist Brethren = Brethren = Church of the Brethren) minister, He may have been among Brethren in eastern Tennessee (ca 1803-1817). and his son's (JOHN FREED Jr.) marriage to CATHERINE

20. 1857, April 4. Deed Book 10, page 60. A deed made April 4, 1857, between ELIZABETH FREED, JOSEPH FREED, SAMUEL FREED, and ADAM STAUFFER and REBECCA STAUFFER, his wife of one part, and ISAAC SHEETZ, of the other part for $580. The Said ELIZABETH FREED, JOSEPH FREED, SAMUEL FREED, and ADAM STOUFFER and REBECCA STOUFFER, his wife grants to ISAAC SHEETZ land in Shenandoah Co., adjoining the land of DANIEL SHEETZ, JOHN COFFMAN, JACOB W. MILLER, dec., and others., being the same tract of which JOSEPH FREED, and his wife, SUSAN FREED died seized and possessed of containing 33 1/4 acres more or less. Signed by ELIZABETH FREET, SAMUEL FREET, MARIA C. FREET, ADAM STOUFFER, AND REBECCA A. STOUFFER. A part of this deed included a statement from the State of Missouri, Saline County, that SAMUEL FREET and MARIA C. FREET, his wife, are personally known by the notary public, and that they voluntarily signed the deed, Cambridge, Missouri, dated February 1870. The entire deed was recorded in the Shenandoah County records on September 19, 1870.

New Books by our Participants

Two new books are now available written by participants in the FREED FAMILY FACTS newsletter. Richard J. Yothers has announced the publication of his book entitled "The Descendants of Jacob Yothers, Bucks County, PA". The book features Jacob Yothers (b. 1741, d. 1828) and his 2800 descendants spread throughout the USA. Some information is also included on Jacob's three brothers and his sister and their families. JACOB YOTHERS was the son of CASPER and BARBARA YODER and the grandson of HANS and ANNA YODER also of Bucks Co. The book contains 210 pages and is available for $22.00 from Richard Yothers at 259 W. Newton St., Boston, MA 02116. (Richard Yothers's maternal grandmother was MAGDALENA F. FREED, 1887-1923.)

Dr. Charles Heiberger has announced that his FRIED genealogy (1st edition) will be available by December 1984, in hard cover, 8 1/2 by 11 inches, 112 pages, indexed, and illustrated, for about $15.00 to $20.00. The book features JOHANNES FRIED (1682-1744), with more extensive coverage of Johannes Fried's son HENRY FRIED and his descendants. Write to him at 100 Longview Drive, Princeton, NJ 08540. for specific details.

A BERKS COUNTY, PA MINISTER'S RECORD

by Janet Cromwell
1687 E. Stuart Ave., Fresno, CA 93710

While studying another family line (LESHER, LESCHER, LOESCHER), I found records of the Evangelical Lutheran Congregation of Rehrersburg, Berks Co., PA, and Tulpehocken Twp., by Rev. Y. W. EARLY, AM , 1757-1852, which mentions two Freed families: JACOB FRIED m. CHRISTINE WIEDMANN, June 21, 1807, and the death report in 1753 of MARIA MAGDALENE FRIEDT, 14 years, daughter of LUDWIG FRIEDT, from Northkill.

THE FREED FAMILIES IN SHENANDOAH COUNTY, VIRGINIA 1788-1857

Suggestions as to their Origins, Relationships and Subsequent Residences

by James M. Freed, Ph.D.

Based on land records, taxes, census records, marriage records and published books, I suggest that there were two and possibly three different Freed families in Shenandoah County, Virginia, during the time 1788-1857.

I. Family number 1, perhaps three brothers mentioned in CHARLES A. HEIBERGER's article on the descendants of PAUL FRIEDT, namely JACOB, PAUL, and JOHN FREED, sons of JACOB and ELIZABETH HEFFLETRAGER FREED and perhaps a son or sons of this PAUL FREED, namely JOHN FREED and perhaps JACOB FREED.

A. JACOB and MARY FREED owned land in Shenandoah County, 1788-1794, and also in 1796-1804, and I assume that these JACOB and MARY FREEDs were the same couple. A JACOB and MARY FREED show up in Fayette County, PA in 1804 (according to Fayette County land records as shared by DAN MOSER, Decatur, Illinois), and are probably the JACOB and MARY FREED of Shenandoah County, VA. Did JACOB and MARY FREED own other land in the Shenandoah Valley? Perhaps the JACOB and MAGDALENE FREED owing land in 1794-1797 are actually the same couple, with MARY using her middle name on this land record on Stoney Creek (Does any reader have evidence of the full name of this MARY FREED?) Or perhaps JACOB and MARY FREED owned land in Rockingham County in 1796. "Growth Amidst Struggle--A Sesquicentennial History of the Longenecker Mennonite Church" by JAMES O. LEHMAN (Winesburg, OH, 1980) is a history of a church located in Paint township, Holmes County, OH, which has several references to Freed families. The author states that MARY BEITER FREED, wife of JACOB, had a son JACOB, born 1796 in Rockingham Co., VA, this second named JACOB being a grandson of JACOB FREED who arrived in Philadelphia from Rotterdam, Holland, in 1752. (Thanks to JOYCE MAIENSCHEIN for sharing this book.) Another book, "Holderman Descendants" (by EDWIN L. WEAVER, Nappanee, IN, 1937) states on page 107,

> "Margaret Holdeman was married the second time November 19, 1836 to JACOB FREED, born June 11, 1796 in Rockingham County, Virginia, and later returned to Pennsylvania, settling this time in Fayette County. Jacob Freed was seven years old when his parents returned to Pennsylvania, where he grew to manhood. While still a young man, JACOB FREED came to Ohio on horseback, and purchased a farm in the heavy forest land of Paint Township, Holmes County, near Winesburg...Jacob and MARGARET (HOLDEMAN, YODER) FREED moved from Holmes County, to Wayne County, Ohio, and...In the spring of 1851 JACOB FREED came to Indiana."

Although the complete significance is unclear at this time, this JACOB FREED (wife MARY) had knowledge of the FUNKHOUSERS of Shenandoah Co., VA, and thereby JOHN and ELIZABETH FUNKHOUSER FREED. This conclusion is based on the following: Land reference #7 given in the previous article indicates that JACOB FREED in 1796 purchased land from JOHN KRANK (brother-in-law of ELIZABETH FUNKHOUSER

FREED FAMILY FACTS

Volume 1, No 1 Winter 1984

JOHANNES FRIEDT/FRIED/FREED
Pioneer Ancestor

Charles A. Heiberger, Ph.D.*

JOHANNES FRIEDT, my maternal great$^5$- grandfather, was born in 1682, probably in Aspisheim, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany, probably the son of HEINRICH FRIEDT. Between 1717 and 1721, when he was about 37 years old, he emigrated to America with his wife, CHRISTIANNA/CHRISTINA, and family: two sons, HEINRICH and PETER; and probably one or two daughters, MARIA and/or CATHARINA.

Aspisheim is a farming village, population less than 1000 at the present, located about 7 miles northeast of Bad Kreuznach in the Nahe valley, south of the Rhine at Bingen/Rudesheim. This picturesque village is surrounded by vast vineyards, which are cultivated and harvested by the farmers. Individual farmers have homes with large attached "garages", which actually house their wagons and horses (now tractors). Everything is old, very neat and always colorful with flowering plants: geraniums, begonias, chrysanthemums, asters, etc.

JOHANNES FRIEDT and his family were Mennonites, which precludes any primary church records of births and baptisms, and throws us on the mercy of secondary evidence. The Mennonite tax lists for the Pfalz, printed in six issues of the Mennonite Quarterly Review, beginning January 1940, Vol. XIV, No. 1, show JOHANNES FRIEDT living in Mannheim in 1717. "Coincidently", a meeting of Mennonites took place in Mannheim in February 1717, to request help from their Dutch brethren, and on March 20, a group of about 100 left on boats down the Rhine, growing to about 300 by the time they arrived in Rotterdam. In those same tax lists, HEINRICH FRITT/FRIEDT is recorded as living in Aspisheim in 1664 and in 1685. Circumstantial evidence strongly suggests that he is the father of JOHANNES FRIEDT: (1) no other Friedts are listed in the Pfalz records; (2) Aspisheim and Mannheim are close geographically; and (3) JOHANNES named his eldest son, HEINRICH.

It is not certain when JOHANNES and his family left for America, but it seems probable that they migrated to Rotterdam in 1717, lived a year or more in Holland, and emigrated to Philadelphia around 1720. An important document, which details his land acquisitions and his family, is recorded in Deed Book 15. pages 533-535, dated 16 June 1802 (Montgomery County Courthouse, Norristown, PA). This record shows that JOHANNES acquired 100 acres on February 11, 1721/22 and 123 acres on April 8, 1724. Therefore, JOHANNES and his family probably arrived no later than 1721. His farm was located in the Skippack area near Lucon, Montgomery Co. PA.

JOHANNES and CHRISTINA had 5 children:

HEINRICH/HENRY, born 30 October 1712, in Germany, married ANNA ______.
PETER, born 1715 in Germany, married BARBARA ______.
MARIA, born ___, married PETER ROTH.
CATHARINA, born ___, married
  JACOB KINSEY.
JOHN, born 3 July 1725 in PA, married
  (1) MARY KOLB, and(2) MARY ____.

JOHANNES died 31 December 1744 at age 62 as recorded on his tombstone. He is buried in the Lower Mennonite Church cemetery near the village of Skippack, Montgomery Co., PA. There are six stones in this plot: JOHANNES; his son JOHN; the two wives of JOHN; a weathered stone, probably CHRISTINA; and a small unmarked stone, probably an infant or child.

JOHANNES left a will, dated May 7, 1744 (see Philadelphia City Hall records for Philadelphia County Will Book G, page 160f). A copy of this will is also printed in Jacob Freed's book, A Partial History of the Freed Family, which erroneously names JOHANNES as the father of the JOHN FREED who married SUSAN DETWEILER. JOHANNES left his estate to his wife and 5 children; his son, JOHN, was named executor and inherited the farm, except for certain bequests to CHRISTINA and payments to the other children. His will addressed his children with these last words, "Depart from Evil and do Good. Seek Peace and pursue it, and Honor your Mother." AMEN!

PARTICIPANTS ## in the ## FREED FAMILY FACTS Newsletter

One of the biggest advantages of a family newsletter is to find out what families are represented among the genealogists that are participating. Below are the 1984 participants in the FREED FAMILY FACTS newsletter listed with their earliest well-documented ancestor. Please note that the son or daughter through whom the participant is descended is also given, and when the expression "Through his..." or "Through her..." or "Through their..." is given, this refers to the earliest "ancestor" listed in that group of participants. It is expected that this list can and will be used by participants to communicate directly one with another on their respective lines. As most of you are aware, be sure to include a self-addressed stamped envelope when writing to someone who you think can be of assistance to you in your family studies. Please send any corrections or additions to the editor (P. O. Box 864, Delaware, OH 43015) for inclusion in the summer 1984 edition of the Freed Family Facts. Also send to the editor names and addresses of any other Freed researchers whose names you have not sent previously and who you think would be interested in participating in the FREED FAMILY FACTS newsletter.

To: All Participants in Freed Family Facts:

Do not be dismayed!! The 1985 issue of the Freed Family Facts will be published and mailed to all participants, but I cannot promise a date.

This past summer and early fall has been literally wiped out for the opportunity to complete the issue, primarily due to difficult, time consuming, and expensive repairs on both my computer and printer. I'm still having problems with my computer, but I hope to keep it going.

If any of you still have records or queries to share for the 1985 issue, please send them in immediately.

16. THOMAS BRUSH$^3$ (Thomas$^1$), born at Huntington, L. I., 16 Jan. 1682/83, was known until 1726 as Jr. As the oldest son of an oldest son he was head of the family and appears frequently as executor and witness in family probates and on land transfers. On 2 June 1704 "Thomas Brush, Jr. son of Thomas Brush deceased" purchased land of Thomas Ketcham and wife Rebecca. He appears in many later land conveyances in Huntington as grantee or grantor. He gave £2 toward the erection of the new meeting house in May, 1711 and on 18 May 1715 as a "West-ender" he opposed bringing the place of its erection to a town vote. He served in Capt. Edward Higbee's military company in 1715 and was elected constable in 1716.

Newton, L. I. Church records show that Thomas Brush of Huntington married Susanna Ketcham of Newtown on 20 Oct. 1710. On the same day David Rogers of Huntington married Jane Ketcham.

On 22 May 1712 Thomas Brush and Benjamin Teed released to Timothy Conklin, Jr., their rights in property which Samuel Teed and wife Hannah had conveyed to Timothy Conklin, Jr., on 13 May 1712. Several years later (1734) Thomas Brush witnessed the will of Timothy Conklin, and it is indicated that this evidence led Horace Rusco, Esq. to state in his genealogical notes that Thomas Brush (No. 10) married Rebecca Teed.

On 1 July 1717 Thomas Brush, Jr.,and James White, both of Huntington, and Michael Waring of Queens Village, jointly, made the first of several important purchases of land at Stamford, Conn. Thomas Brush had removed to Stamford by 23 June 1718 (though one Stamford deed dated 16 July 1718 refers to him as of Huntington), and in a deed dated 12 Nov. 1718 he is called "late of Huntington but now of Stamford." He had returned to Huntington by 3 Apr. 1719, when he and wife Susannah made the first of two sales of Stamford land. Thomas Brush, Jr. of Huntington deeded a 20-acre right in Stamford on 28 Jan. 1723/24.

He and brothers, Jacob, Jr. and Timothy Brush, gave each to the others, two deeds on 6 Mar. 1722/23, ratifying their Huntington holdings as divided. He joined Huntington church 2 Dec. 1725, Susannah Brush having already been a member at the time of the ordination of the Rev. Ebenezer Prime on 5 June 1723.

Thomas Brush was named an executor in the will of his brother-in-law Thomas Brush (No. 10) in 1726. He and Hannah Brush, perhaps a second wife, witnessed signatures of several signers of the Queens Village Disclaimer on 13 May 1731, and on 12 Nov. 1731 he testified that he had seen his brother Jacob Brush, since deceased, sign the disclaimer on the earlier date. He witnessed the will of Nathaniel Williams in Dec., 1732, and on 17 May 1739 he and James Chichester administered the estate of Sarah Chichester, widow of Jeremiah Chichester. He was one of three to adjust the differences between Samuel and Isaac Brush over the maintenance of their father, the aged John Brush of Cold Spring, in Jan., 1739/40. On 23 Nov. 1746 reference was made to his having been executor of the will of his brother Timothy Brush. He appears consistently in the account books of Henry Lloyd as a purchaser not only of powder and shot, spurs, saddles, etc., but also of such items as Holland lace.

Thomas Brush was a town trustee in 1731 to 35, and in 1737 and 38. In 1731 he was collector and served as surveyor in 1734 and later. He married as his second or third wife on 16 Feb. 1740/41 the widow MARTHA MATHIES, whose first husband was James Mathies. On 14 Feb. 1742/43 Thomas Brush, Sr. and wife Martha deeded land in West Neck to Nathaniel Williams and Jonas Williams. On 25 Apr. 1743 they deeded 143 acres to Thomas Dennis. Sometime between 1746 and 1748 they removed to Amwell township, Hunterdon Co., N. J. His will, signed there on 13 Apr. 1749, proved 24 May 1749, mentions wife Martha, sons Philip (60 acres at west end of my farm, chest that was his brother Eliphalet's, along with other property), Abner (240-acre farm with house and buildings) and daughters Elizabeth Scidmore, Abigail Kelsey and Sarah, Martha and Mary Brush. Son Abner Executor. Charles Sexton, Timothy Brush and Andrew Smith, Jr. witnesses.

Children of Thomas[3] Brush and Susannah Ketcham (first five from Huntington town records; others allocated from Rev. Mr. Prime's baptisms):

70. i. Eliphalet[4], b. 8 Mar. 1711/12. On 4 Feb. 1731/32 Thomas Brush bought "one doz. best coat buttons by order Eliphalet." Eliphalet Brush appears on Henry Lloyd's account books as purchasing raisins, shoe buckles and a Psalm book. His signature is written across his account in settlement, 25 Dec. 1732. The account books show he was master of the sloop Revenge which Henry Lloyd victualled on an adventure to the West Indies between 27 Apr. 1735 and Oct., 1736. No further record found, and he evidently was dead without issue in 1749 when his father made his will. Perhaps his widow was the Mrs. Mary Brush of Norwalk, Conn., whose will signed in 1770 left property to her nieces, she having been born Beers. (See Families of Ancient Fairfield by Donald Lines Jacobus.)

+71. ii. Philip[4], b. 18 July 1714.

72. iii. Elizabeth[4], b. 24 Feb. 1717/18; m. 30 May 1739 John Skidmore, Jr.

73. iv. Abigail[4], b. 7 Aug. 1720; m. 17 Feb. 1740/41 Daniel Kelsey.

THE FETTIPLACE FAMILY

By A. Russell Slagle, of Baltimore, Maryland

Introduction

By Donald Lines Jacobus, of New Haven, Conn.

The Fettiplace family was very prominent in England for several centuries, holding several manors in Berkshire and in adjacent Oxfordshire. The American Phettiplaces, as well as Roger Ludlow, descend from the oldest branch of the family which had its seat at North Denchworth, co. Berks; the contributor has obtained many records from England relating to this branch. From Sir Thomas Fettiplace and his high-born Portuguese wife descended the baronets Fettiplace of Childrey, co. Berks, and Swinford, co. Oxon, who, according to an article in the National Geographic Magazine in May 1948 (vol. 93, No. 5) "owned and ruled the Swinbrook area for 315 years". Here too was quoted the old rhyme current in that neighborhood:

> The Tracys, the Lacys, and the Fettiplaces
> Own all the manors, the parks and the chases.

From a younger son of the latter branch can be traced the Fettiplace brothers who were companions of Capt. John Smith in Virginia, as well as the Fettiplace great-grandmother of Gov. Thomas Dudley of Massachusetts. For full details of the numerous lines, the reader should consult the copious charts prepared by J. Renton Dunlop, F.S.A., referred to below. Our aim in this article is to show the American connections and to preserve the additional English data obtained by the compiler.

Part I

1. Adam Fettiplace is the earliest ancestor of the North Denchworth family from whom a connected pedigree can be claimed. Visitation pedigrees of the family exist, but they were utilized by J.

Renton Dunlop, F.S.A., Esq., and included by him, with amplifications, in his chart of Fettiplace of North Denchworth, Berkshire, in Miscellanea Genealogica et Heraldica, 5th Series, vol. 2, p. 93-100 (1916-17). On his exhaustive research we rely for the first seven generations, until we reach Walter of the eighth generation, great-great-grandfather of Philip Phettiplace, the Rhode Island settler.

Mr. Dunlop gives us this account of Adam: "1232. Imprisoned for beating and wounding clerks of the Oxford Schools (apparently a skirmish between 'Town and Gown' (Close Rolls, 16 Hen. III). 1243. 'Moneyer' of Oxford (Red Book of the Exchequer, vol. III, p. 1076). 1245. Mayor for this and many other years (Close Rolls). 1257. Confirmation of a lease by Fulk Fitzwarin to Adam Fettiplace of the manor of Wantage (Patent Rolls, 41 Hen. III). Presented Bartholomew to the living of Kencott, Oxon. (Linc. Reg.) 1263. Purchased of Ralph de Cameys the manor of North Denchworth, co. Berks."

In 1259-60 he was in Oseney, co. Oxon., and in 1210 Thomas Faiteplace (sic) was a resident of that place (P. H. Reaney, A Dictionary of British Surnames, 1958, p. 118). The earliest record of the name found by our correspondent, Keith B. Poole, is on a grant issued in the reign of King John (1199-1216) which was witnessed by Geoffrey Petipas (added charter 28356, British Museum). The undocumented assertion in Burke's The Extinct and Dormant Baronetcies of England, 1838, p. 195 (lineage of John Fettiplace of Childrey, 1st baronet) that the "first Fettiplace in England (no given name stated) was gentleman usher to William the Conqueror, and came in with that monarch" must be viewed with suspicion, though the family may well have settled in England in Norman times.

It is definitely proved that Adam had at least two sons, Philip, who follows, and Walter, and that the latter had sons John and Thomas. Some of the other Fettiplace families, who centered in Berkshire, may have descended from this younger line or from some other cadet branch.

2. SIR PHILIP FETTIPLACE, of North Denchworth, was Knight of the Shire for Berks, 1302. In 1278 he held half a knight's fee in Chalford (parish of Aston Rowant, Oxon.) and six virgates of land in demesne (Hundred Rolls, 7 Edw. I). In 1290 a quitclaim was given by John de Cameys to Philip Fettiplace and his heirs of the manor of North Denchworth for which quitclaim Philip gives one sore sparrowhawk (Feet of Fines, Berks, 19 Edw. I).

On 31 Oct. 1265, Sir Philip complained that "Simon s(on) of Simon E(arl) of Leicester had imprisoned his F(ather) Adam Fettiplace till he enfeoffed Guy, the Earl's tailor of 10 M. rent in Oxford ("Knights of Edward I": Harleian Society Publications, vol. 81 (1929), p. 20).

Sir Philip Fettiplace bore for his arms: On a field (gules) two chevrons (argent), quartering the coat of the Lord St. Amand, as is evident from a seal used by him, with his name around it, in the time of Edward I (Ashmole, Antiquities of Berks, vol. II, p. 215, as cited by Mr. Dunlop). This suggested to our eminent English genealogist, Hector Carter, Esq., that Philip's wife Margery may have been a member of the St. Amand family, especially as the name Almeric (Amaury) was used for generations in that family and was carried on for generations in the Fettiplace family, starting with Philip's son.*

Five other branches of the Fettiplace family, centering in Berkshire, all used for arms, gules, two chevrons argent, with variation for difference or quartering, which indicates that they were all branches of the same family.

Sir Philip died after 1302, his wife Margery after 1308. They had two sons, Henry and Almeric (see below) of whom the former died without issue. We quote Mr. Dunlop again: "1299. Henry and his brother Almeric warrant the manor of North Denchworth to Philip Fettiplace for life, with remainder to themselves and the heirs of Almeric (Feet of Fines, Berks, 28 Edw. I). 1308. Henry purchases one carucate and one virgate of land in Shorthampton and Lyford, which he settles on himself, with remainder to Margery, who was wife of Philip Fettiplace (Feet of Fines, Berks, 2 Edw. II)."

3. ALMERIC FETTIPLACE, of North Denchworth, married JOAN ——. From Mr. Dunlop's chart (op. cit.): "1315. One knight's fee in North Denchworth held by Almeric Fettiplace. 1316. Almeric and Joane settle the manor of North Denchworth on themselves and their heirs. 1317. Almeric and Joane purchase of Richard Bishop a messuage, mill and lands in Bockland, Berks, which they settle on themselves and the heirs of Almeric."

4. ALMERIC FETTIPLACE, of North Denchworth, married MARGARET ———, who with her husband in 1324 settled a "messuage, a mill, and land in Bocland and Denchworth on themselves for life, with remainder to Almeric and Richard, sons of Almeric Fettiplace, and the heirs of Almeric, Jr." In 1330 an agreement was made between Almeric Fettiplace and Robert of Charney, by which the eldest son of Almeric was to marry Mary, daughter of Robert of Charney. That the marriage occurred, and that this couple were progenitors of the later Fettiplace of North Denchworth, is proved by the will of John$^{9}$ Fettiplace of that manor in 1510, which gave to his wife a life interest

*I. J. Sanders, English Baronies, 1086-1327, Oxford 1960, p. 26-27, gives the following account. Nigel d'Aubigny, almost certainly uncle of the two brothers William d'Aubigny (ancestor of the Earls of Arandel) and Nigel d'Aubigny (whose son took the name of Mowbray and was ancestor of the Barons of Mowbray and Dukes of Norfolk) was the Domesday lord of the barony of Cainhoe, co. Bedford. He was followed in direct line by Henry, Robert I (d. 1191), and Robert II (d. 1221) who left only daughters. One of these, Ascelina d'Aubigny, who eventually inherited half of the barony, married Ralph de St. Amand (d. 1245). Their son Almeric (Amaury), born about 1236, died 1285, was succeeded by three sons in turn, Guy (d.s.p. 1287), Almeric (b. 1267/8, d.s.p. 1310), and John (d. 1330), the last of whom continued the line. A study of the dates indicates that if Margery belonged to this family, she must be placed as a daughter of Ralph de St. Amand and Ascelina d'Aubigny, and sister of the first Almeric.

in "the tenement in Charney called Robert of Charney's, with all lands belonging thereto (P.C.C., 32 Bennett). In 1331, Almeric settled a messuage and one carucate of land in Shawe and Thatcham on John le Draper of Wantage and Joan his wife and their heirs, failing which, to Richard and Nicholas, sons of Almeric, and the heirs of Richard (Feet of Fines, Berks, 5 Edw. III). Almeric died by 1347.

5. Thomas Fettiplace married about 1330 Mary, daughter of Robert of Charney, and the 13th century Charney manor house, brought into Fettiplace ownership by this marriage, remained in possession of the family for several generations. A writ was issued in 1347 to exonerate the pledge of Almeric Fettiplace from finding a hobelar, as he had died since the assessment on his lands, and his son and heir, Thomas, was serving in the retinue of William de Bohun, Earl of Northampton, and had been present at the battle of Crecy (1346) and the siege of Calais (1347) (Fch. Rolls, 20 Edw. III).

6. Henry Fettiplace, of whom little is known, died siezed of the manor of North Denchworth, June 1411, when his son and heir was John, aged 20 (I.P.M., 4 Hen. V). Mr. Dunlop's charts place Henry presumptively as son of Thomas, but the dates suggest an intervening generation. Thomas was affianced in 1330 and, even if then not yet adult, was certainly born well before 1320 because Thomas was the eldest son and in 1324 his father Almeric settled land on two younger sons. We must therefore guess that Thomas was born by 1315 and probably earlier and was married in or shortly after 1330. Hence Henry, if his son, should have been born 1340-45 if not earlier, yet Henry's eldest son John is known by record to have been born about 1391.

7. John Fettiplace, born about 1391, is recorded in 1428 as holding three parts of one knight's fee in North Denchworth (Feudal Aids). No doubt because he was recognized as head of the family, John was appointed one of his feofees by Peter Fettiplace of Andrewes Court, West Hanney, in 1444 (I.P.M., Peter Fettiplace, 22 Hen. VI). This Peter probably came from the line of Richard, a younger son of Almeric (No. 4 above) because he owned lands in three places which correspond to lands in deeds mentioned above of which Richard was the donee or eventual beneficiary; but as Peter could hardly have been old enough to have been a son of Richard, he was most probably his grandson.

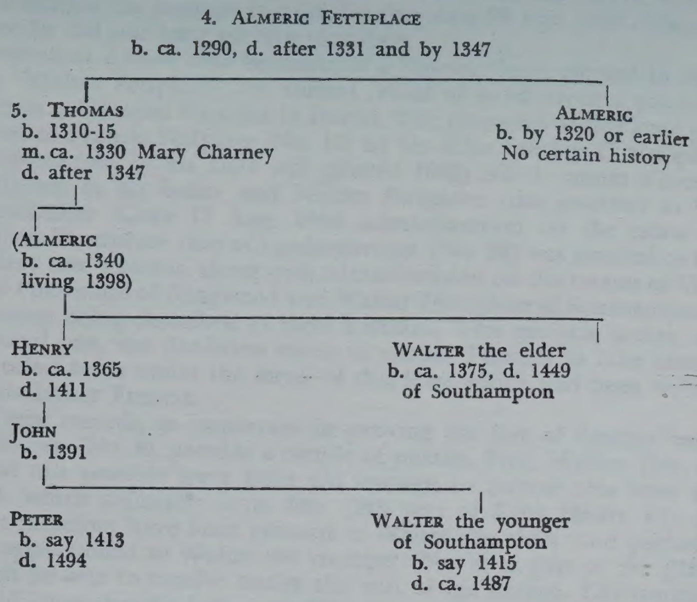
John was almost certainly the father of Peter (born perhaps ca. 1413), the next owner of the manors of North Denchworth and of Hall Place, Charney, who died 31 May 1494 (when his son and heir, John, was over 40), as well as of the younger Walter Fettiplace of Southampton (born perhaps ca. 1415), the ancestor of the American line.

The Early Chancery Proceedings (32/131) reveal that Piers (i.e., Peter) Fettiplace states that his younger brother Walter claims that their mother "Anneys" (i.e., Annis or Agnes) left him certain lands and tenements in Southampton; Piers claims they are rightfully his but Walter refuses to hand them over. Unfortunately, the record is undated, but if it relates to Peter Fettiplace of North Denchworth, it must have been our younger Walter (No. 8) who was his brother. This is extremely likely. Peter's son and heir, John$^{9}$, born before 1454, died 2 Aug. 1510, by will mentioned not only the tenement in Charney called Robert of Charney's (see No. 4 above), but also lands and tenements in Southampton. The line of descent thus seems proved, even if possibly a generation has been skipped between Nos. 5 and 6.

The manor of North Denchworth remained in the possession of the descendants of Peter$^{8}$ for five generations, passed by marriage of the heiress to the Fettiplace family of Childrey, and finally, about 1809, was sold to a farmer named Frogley. By then the ancient manor house was probably gone. The present compiler visited the site in 1964 and again in 1967. Nothing remains of the mansion except a few scattered foundation stones. The site is in the so-called Vale of the White Horse, that remarkable and well known monument of unknown antiquity which can be seen from several points in the vicinity.

8. Walter Fettiplace, the younger, of Southampton, is placed on the basis of the evidence given above as a son of John (No. 7) of North Denchworth by his wife Annis, and we guess his birth date as about 1415. Before considering his career, we must consider that of the older Walter Fettiplace, his patron and probable uncle or, more likely, great-uncle.

The place of the older Walter in the genealogy has never been proved. The details of his career necessitate placing his birth at about the year 1375. That makes it impossible to place him as own uncle of our younger Walter, whose father John (by Henry's I.P.M.) was born about 1391, for since John was eldest son and heir, he could not have had a younger brother born about 1375. Our editor, Mr. Jacobus, suggests a solution. It has been pointed out above that the generation gap between Henry (No. 6) who died 1411 and his supposed father Thomas (No. 5) who married about 1330 seems too long and that there may well have been a generation between them. Let us suppose that Thomas had a son Almeric who was father of Henry, thus the dates would fit better. Mr. Dunlop's charts, indeed, show that in 1398 an Almeric Fettiplace held one knight's fee in Denchworth and that even as late as 1459 the "heirs of Almeric Fettiplace" held the same. These entries are late to apply to Almeric the younger son of Almeric (No. 4), who must have been born by 1320 or earlier. A brief chart will best explain the theory, but with the caution that the theory is not proved:



The elder Walter, in addition to great generosity to his "kinsman" Walter Fettiplace, gave £20 to his kinsman Almeric Fettiplace, who is otherwise unknown but may have been a younger son of either Henry or John. This does prove that the old family name was handed down, and an Almeric between Thomas and Henry would provide a connecting link for the name, besides improving the chronology and giving us a place to fit the elder Walter into the pedigree. Thomas was rather old to be father of the elder Walter, and of course the latter could not have been a son of Henry whose eldest son and heir was born 1391.

The elder Walter became a wealthy citizen of Southampton and held various municipal offices, such as Steward (1413), Bailiff (1414), Alderman (1421), Burgess (1423), and Mayor (1426, 1433 and 1440). He was a draper, with his own shop, and sold cloth both locally and abroad. One of the expenses he claimed in 1433 as Mayor was 8d. for wine when he entertained the great Cardinal Beaufort at Southwick. Accounts of him may be found by Barbara Carpenter Turner in Papers and Proceedings of The Hampshire Field Club (vol. 16, p. 173-177) and by Dr. Herbert F. Seversmith in Colonial Families of Long Island, New York and Connecticut (vol. 5, p. 2163-2168).

Walter Fettiplace the elder left a will dated 18 July 1449, proved 3 July 1449 (sic, Lambeth Arch. Reg. Stafford, 173 A), in which he remembered a sister Dame Jane Fettiplace, Dames Sibel and Katherine Fettiplace (perhaps also sisters), kinsman Almeric Fettiplace (mentioned above), and gave to his "kinsman and apprentice" Walter Fettiplace, £200 outright and made him the heir of the residue of his estate in default of heirs of his two grandchildren, Lora the wife of John Ludlowe, and Thomas Ringwood her brother. He had married Alice, daughter of John Cosyn; his daughter Isabel had died before him, leaving two children by her husband, Thomas Ringwood of Cridlestyle, a manor in Fordingbridge. This Ringwood marriage is the earliest known connection between our Fettiplace family and the Ringwood-Fordingbridge neighborhood with which it was intimately connected for over two centuries. Walter's granddaughter, Lora Ringwood, married John Ludlow, and from them descended the noted Roger Ludlow. Among the American families which can claim Fettiplace ancestry on this line are the descendants of Roger Ludlow through his daughter Sarah, wife of the Rev. Nathaniel Brewster; of his nephew Thomas Ludlow of Virginia; of his niece Sarah Ludlow, wife of Col. John Carter of Virginia; and of his grandnephew Gabriel Ludlow of New York. The two Harrison Presidents of the United States descended through the Carter line.

Returning now to our Walter (No. 8), born as we suppose around 1415: he followed in the footsteps of his wealthy patron and kinsman, who seems to have viewed him as a foster-son. He continued to conduct the far-reaching business, making use of carters in great numbers instead of the usual pack-horses, a successful innovation which suggests that the roads of those days were not as bad as tradition represents them. An entry in the Steward's Book of 1456-57 shows that in time of stress he lent money to the town. Like his uncle, he held the offices of Mayor (1463), Bailiff and Burgess of Southampton (The Black Book of Southampton (1912-15), vols. 1 and 2, published by the Southampton Record Society). He was also Member of Parliament for the borough in 1472.

The following record relating to him has been translated from the Latin (Calendar of Close Rolls, Edw. IV, vol. II, 1468-1476):

> "(1475) Nov. 16. Westminster. To the escheator in Southampton. Order to remove the king's hands and to meddle no more with the manor of Estmylle by Fordyngbrygge as it is learnt by inquisition that Thomas Ryngwode, esq., deceased, held no lands of the king or of others in demesne or in service in that county on the day he died; but that before his death he was seised in demesne as of fee of the above manor of Estmylle, and of three messuages and an acre of meadow in Fordyngbrygge, and of twenty acres of meadow, 100 acres of pasture, and forty acres of wood, lying in a close called the 'Felde'; and of 100 acres of land lying in a close called 'Sondeballe'; and of four acres called 'Fouracres' and being so seized, by charter dated 9 July 23 Hen. VI by the late king's license, he granted the premises aforesaid to John Popham, Kt., Walter Fettiplace and Thomas Frankeleyn, whereby they were seised thereof in demesne: and afterwards John Popham and Thomas Frankeleyn died, and Walter Fettiplace outlived them: and since the 'Felde', 'Sondeball' and 'Fouracres', lying within the New Forest in the parish of Fordyngbrygge are held of the king in chief as of the manor of Lyndehurst at a rent of 4s. 1d. a year; and the manor of Estmylle is held of others than the king: who, for a mark paid at the hanaper has respited the homage of the said Walter Fettiplace at the Nativity of St. John the Baptist next following. Order to give the said Walter Fettiplace seisin of the above premises held in chief, taken into the king's hands on the death of Thomas Ryngwoode, together with all issues and profits received from them since that time."

His will cannot be found, but in The Black Book of Southampton (vol. III, p. 48) is an abstract of a deed in which the will of Walter Phetteplace the younger is cited, bearing date 28 Apr. 1487. We suppose he did not long survive that date.

Mention should here be made of a 280-year lease erected in 1431 for "Walter Fetiplace", an annual rental of 4s.1d. from a property known as Okeford Fitpaine in Dorset. The reversion of this lease was given to Francis Fetiplace (No. 10) by his older brother Christopher Fetiplace (sic) in his 1593 will (proved 1602) which names Vincent Fetiplace as his father and Walter Fetiplace (the grantee) as his grandfather. Later 11 Aug. 1606, administration on the estate of Francis Phetiplace (sic) of Fordingbridge (No. 10) was granted to his (eldest) son Thomas, along with administration on the estates of Vincent Phetiplace of Ringwood and Walter Phetiplace of Southampton, Thomas being described as their kinsman. This probate action, an unusual one, was doubtless taken to enable Thomas to take action to collect rents under the terms of this lease which had been willed to his father Francis.

These records, so important in proving the line of descent back to Walter (No. 8), provide a couple of puzzles. First, Walter (No. 8) could not possibly have been old enough to receive this lease in 1431, which definitely is its date (9th year of King Henry VI). It must therefore have been granted to Walter the elder, and perhaps was apportioned to Walter the younger (No. 8) as part of the £200 which he was to receive under the will of his patron. Christopher would know that his father was Vincent and his grandfather Walter, but his knowledge of the earlier history of his family was probably slight, and it would seem that he assumed the identity of his grandfather with the Walter who received the lease.

The other puzzle is that if Vincent (No. 9), undoubted father of Christopher and of Francis (No. 10), was the son of Walter (No. 8), the generations are unusually long. It is true that several members of this family seem to have married at an older age than was customary. We have supposed Walter (No. 8) to have been born about 1415, though he may have been slightly younger. If Vincent (No. 9) was born as late as about 1475, Walter would certainly have been as old as 55 to 60 at his birth. Vincent had five known children, at least two of whom lived past 1600. We cannot be far off if we place the births of these children somewhere between 1520 and 1540, a rather wide range, but even if Vincent were born as late as 1475, it would make him between 45 and 65 when his children were born. Although possible, one would feel happier genealogically if Walter (No. 8) could be given a son Walter who died early leaving the son Vincent (No. 9) to succeed his grandfather. But nothing has been found to lend evidence to such a theory.

Walter is credited with a daughter Alice who married first, —— Harryson, and second, "Walter Tancok of 'Nuport' in the Isle of Wight, yeman," and with the following son.

9. Vincent Phetteplace (a spelling often used by members of this branch) was presumably a man of substance but almost nothing has been found about him in the records. In 16 Hen. VIII (1524-25) he was assessed in Ringwood (Lay Subsidy Rolls for the New Forest area). By an unknown wife or wives he was father of:

i. Christopher, see below.
ii. Francis (No. 10).
iii. Jasper, of Fordingbridge, a village about five miles north of Ringwood, Hampshire. In a deed dated 20 Jan. 1568/9, Christopher Fettiplace (his brother) sold several properties including one of 3½ acres called "Monkes, now in the tenure of Jasper Phetteplace." In his will dated 21 April 1577, proved 28 Oct. 1587, Jasper of Fordingbridge, mercer, mentioned his wife Edith and children Vincent, Charles, Marjorie and Richard (P.C.C., 58 Spencer). In 1582 a Vincent Fettiplace was witness to a sale, manor of Cranborne, Alderholt (Moulton's Catalogue (1932), under Dorset, 14 Sept. 1582. C. 1757), which is in Dorset but near Fordingbridge, Hants. And on 7 Feb. 1594, "Vincent Phettyplace, gent., buried out of Perce his house in Chancery-lane" (Topographica et Genealogica, vol. 4, p. 119). Either or both of these items may refer to Jasper's son.
iv. John, not specifically named in Christopher's will, which does however give 10s. to Thomas Fetiplace son of John Fetiplace. He also had a son John, doubtless the one Christopher referred to as his sister Agnes's "man"; and in 1602 the will of Agnes left 40s. to "John Phetteplace and his heirs male, son of my brother John." It was probably the younger John who was sworn in as bailiff on the manor of Burgate 28 Jan. 1628 "before Lady Margaret Bulkeley, lady of the manor" (Court Books, Manor of Burgate, Fordingbridge, Hampshire).
v. Agnes, m. John Lyne the younger, who d. 1595. Her will, dated 9 Oct. 1600, proved 27 Jan. 1602/3, calls her of Ringwood, widow (P.C.C., 2 Bolein). Her son Richard Lyne married Elinor Venable and their daughter Margaret Lyne married Edmund Percival, lord of the manor of Ringwood; to which their eldest son Samuel Venable succeeded, while a younger son, Philip Percival, married Annis (Carter) Fettiplace, widow of Michael (see below).

Christopher Fettiplace, gent., the eldest son of Vincent, acquired the manor of Over Burgate by marriage with an heiress, the lady Joan Lewis alias Johnson, a descendant of the Coke family, ancient lords of this manor. With her husband she sold the manor to Thomas Percy in 1564 (Victoria History of Hampshire and the Isle of Wight, ed. by William Page, vol. 4, p. 571). Joan was buried at Ringwood 1 Jan. 1586; Christopher was buried there 27 Dec. 1593.

The will of Christopher, dated 12 Nov. 1593, proved 19 June 1602 (P.C.C., 41 Montague), is of immense importance, not only because it named his father and grandfather, but also because it named his brother Francis and Walter the son of Francis, and this Walter was father of the American colonist, Philip (No. 12). In view of its importance it seems desirable to quote it extensively:

> "I Xp'ofer Fetyplace of Ringwood . . . . give and graunte . . . . All my Landes Billes of Debtes and Obligac'ons and a little Booke of Debtes vnto Frauncis Fetiplace of Forthinbridge my Brother . . . . Pasture in Okeford Fitzpaine aforesaid .... And for the more sure and perfect assurance of my said Brother Frauncys herein I doe give to my said Brother Frauncys the Leasse in wrightinge .... whereby .... (the said tenement and lands were demised and granted) by Richard Awberie sometime Abbott of the howse and Churche of our Ladie of Titchefeld vnto Walter Fetiplace my grandfather for terme of twoe hundred and fowerscore yeeres aforesaid as by the same Lease dated the Fiftenthe Daie of Maie in the nynthe yeere of the Reigne of kinge Henrie the sixte after the conquest it maye amongst other thinges appeere together with the severall deedes or wrightinges sealed wherby the Reverend Richard Beare sometime Abbott of Glastonberrie and the righte hono'able Henrye sometime Earle of Northumb'la'd sometime Lorde of the Mannor of Ackeford al(ia)s Okeford Fitzpaine in the Reigne of Kinge Henrie the eighte did graunte and confirm the said Leasse and terme of twoe hundreth and fowrescore yeeres .... to Edward Edgor Vincent Fetiplace my Father William Worms and to me the said Christopher the assignes of the said Walter (etc.)."

To this Christopher appended a sort of deed to his brother Francis of his lands and of the residue of his estate excepting what he had already limited or given.

10. Francis Fettiplace (or Phetteplace), born presumably about 1540, was of Fordingbridge when his brother Christopher made his will in 1593 and when his son Thomas took out administration on his estate 11 Aug. 1606 (P.C.C. Admon. Act Book 1605-1610, fo. 50 b). The original record, in Latin, called Thomas natural and legitimate son of Francis, but the printed record (in Index Library, vol. 81, 1964) incorrectly renders this as "kinsman". Thomas was called kinsman of Vincent of Ringwood and of Walter of Southampton (no doubt his grandfather and great-grandfather) when granted administration on their estates at the same time. We are indebted for this record to Hector Carter, Esq., of Guildford.

Five children of Francis were named in Christopher's will. There was also a Richard son of Francis, baptized at Ringwood 20 July 1604. Two years earlier, Alice wife of Francis was buried at Ringwood, on 1 June 1602. It is not known who she was, or whether she was mother of some or all of his children. Our Francis was then about 60 years old, but it remains possible that he married again and fathered the child in 1604.

The following records were sent to us by R.M.B.H. Hackman of Romney, Surrey, England:

i. Thomas, b. possibly ca. 1570; see below.
ii. Edith.
iii. Dorothy.
iv. Walter (No. 11), b. possibly ca. 1580.
v. John.

Thomas Fettiplace (Phetiplace), born say about 1570, buried at Ringwood 29 Apr. 1630; married first, at Ringwood, 12 Oct. 1598, Mary Jeanes, who was buried there 26 Nov. 1614; married there, second, 30 Jan. 1618, Alice Prince.

Children by first wife, baptized at Ringwood:

i. Susan, bapt. 24 June 1599; m. at Ringwood, 16 Nov. 1620, James Stocke (or Stokes).

ii. Frances, bapt. 27 Sept. 1601; m. at Ringwood, 10 June 1631, Robert Miller.

iii. Edward, b. ca. 1604-5; "Slayne" 10 Nov. 1667; m. at Ringwood, 25 June 1629, Ann Huett. Children, recorded at Ringwood: 1. Sarah, bapt. 28 Mar. 1630; m. ——— Lewis. 2. Martha, possibly the child "Matthew" bapt. 21 Dec. 1633 if that name is in error. 3. John, bapt. 10 June 1635; living 1656. 4. Christopher, bapt. Aug. 1637; d. before 1656. 5. James, bapt. 12 Sept. 1639; bur. 17 Mar. 1682; m. and had issue. 6. Edward, bapt. 16 Sept. 1641; d. young, perhaps the unnamed son who was bur. 11 July 1642. 7. Ann, bapt. 20 Feb. 1643; possibly error for Mary as named in will of Uncle Michael. 8. Ann, bapt. 20 Feb. 1644 (1644/5?). 9. Thomas, bapt. 25 Nov. 1646; m. and had issue.

iv. Michael, bapt. 29 Jan. 1609; d. in 1657; m. 26 Nov. 1630, Annis Carter, who m. (2) Philip Percival, great-grandson of Agnes Fettiplace (see above). Generally styled "gent," Michael is mentioned in a list of beer sellers of the town of Portsmouth in Oct. 1645. He was a Burgess of Portsmouth, 1648-1656. His will refers to real estate he owned there. A Phetteplace (given name not stated) "at ye Trumpett" is entered in a list of Burgesses and in Court Leet Presentments, 17 Oct. 1644. As we shall see, his first cousin Francis (brother of our Philip the colonist) settled in Portsmouth and engaged in what we call the restaurant business. It seems not unlikely that Michael was the owner or lessee of "ye Trumpett," undoubtedly an inn, and that his cousin Francis moved to Portsmouth to manage the dispensing of meals and beverages. The will of Michael Phetiplace of Ringwood, gentleman, dated 10 Mar. 1656, proved 12 June 1657 (P.C.C., 263 Ruthen), remembers his parish church of Ringwood; gives £10 to his brother Edward Phetiplace, and £10 to each of Edward's children (John, James and Thomas Phetiplace, Sarah Lewis, and Martha, Mary and Anne Phetiplace); to his wife Anne (called Annis later in the will) his house and lands in Portsmouth for life, and after her death to the nephew Thomas Phetiplace, also the residue; to nephew James Phetiplace (after the death of testator's wife) the house where he now lives in Ringwood; to James and Moses Stokes, sons of his nephew James Stokes £10 apiece; also £10 to his sister Frances Miller and £5 apiece to her children (Robert, Henry, Frances and Mary Miller); £20 to sister Elizabeth Aldridge; and a legacy to nephew Henry Moores (under 21). The children of Michael clearly died before him, but he had five recorded at Ringwood: 1. Thomas, bapt. 15 Apr. 1632; d. young. 2. Michael, bapt. 28 Apr. 1633; bur. 30 —— 1633. 3. Simon, bapt. 30 May 1635; d. young. 4. Michael, bapt. 5 Aug. 1638; perhaps the "son" who was bur. 12 Apr. 1640. 5. Mary, bapt. 7 July 1640; d. young.

Children by second wife:

v. Thomas, bapt. 8 Nov. 1618; probably d. young.
vi. Elizabeth, bapt. 16 Nov. 1620; m. ——— Aldridge.

11. WALTER PHETTEPLACE, born perhaps about 1580, buried at Ringwood 13 Sept. 1657; his wife, name not stated, was buried at Ringwood 18 Jan. 1645/6.

Little is known about Walter except that in 1593 he was named as a legatee in the will of his uncle, Christopher Fettiplace, the main bequest being the unexpired term of the lease of a house in Limington called the Myll house. Limington is a small town in Hampshire, 12 miles southeast of Ringwood on the estuary of the River Boldere, not far from the Solent, and about 15 miles southwest of Portsmouth. He had three children baptized at St. Peter and St. Paul Church, Ringwood, and two at All Saints and St. Marys Church, Ellingham, which is close to Ringwood.

Children:

i. FRANCIS, bapt. at Ringwood 21 Nov. 1613; d. at Portsmouth, co. Hants, in 1655; m. (1) at Ringwood, 24 Oct. 1640, ELIZABETH BRIXSIE, by whom he had a son Francis bapt. there 29 Jan. 1643; m. (2) MARY ——— who m. (2) at Portsmouth, 16 June 1656, Tobias Brown. It seems likely that he was brought to Portsmouth by his cousin Michael (see above) to handle the management and sales of the inn called "ye Trumpett" which Michael probably owned. The name of Francis appears in the "Victuallers Recognizance" of Portsmouth dated 4 Mar. 1645, when he was bound over in the sum of five shillings "not to dresse eate utter or putt to sale any flesh victuall in tyme of Lent contrary to his Maiesties Statutes." He was mentioned in lists of "sellers" of beer, ale and strong waters at Portsmouth, 1645-1655, although registered in the town records, 1647-1651, as a clothworker. Administration was granted on his estate in 1655 to his widow, Mary. Nothing has been learned about his children, if he left surviving issue.

ii. DEBORAH, bapt. at Ellingham 20 Jan. 1616. Despite her age, she is probably the Deborah who m. at Portsmouth, 9 Oct. 1663, THOMAS STODDER, a mariner, who was bur. there 19 Dec. 1664.

iii. A DAUGHTER (name omitted), bapt. at Ellingham 1 Apr. 1618.

iv. PHILIP (No. 12), bapt. at Ringwood 14 Apr. 1621.

v. SAMUEL, bapt. at Ringwood 3 June 1626. Nothing definite has been learned about him, but a Samuel Phetteplace by wife Elizabeth had a child James bapt. 12 Dec. 1651 at St. Martin-in-the-Fields, London, and other children baptized there later. About that time members of the London and Essex branch of the Phetteplace (Fettiplace) family were active members of that church. The Samuel of London has not been identified and may be the one born at Ringwood.

12. PHILIP PHETTIPLACE, baptized at Ringwood, Hampshire, England, 14 April 1621, is in our opinion identical with the founder of the Rhode Island family of Phetteplace. A large amount of research in England has failed to locate records of Philip there after his baptism.

On 22 Sept. 1671 "at a meeting of the free inhabitants of the Towne of Portsmouth," R. I., he propounded himself to be admitted a freeman," and on 14 Oct. following it was "Voted that phillip phitaplace is admitted an Inhabitant amongst us" (The Early Records of the Town of Portsmouth, 1901, p. 166). He signed as a witness to the will of Philip Sherman, 30 July 1681, and acknowledged his signature when the will was probated 22 March 1687 (John Arnold Austin, Genealogical Dictionary of Rhode Island, 1887, p. 151-52).

Nothing more has been found of the history of Philip Phetteplace, nor was anything further found by Miss Grace Olive Chapman of Dorchester, Mass., whose typed manuscript, "Some Descendants of Phillip Phetteplace of Portsmouth, Rhode Island", which deals with the American branch of the family, may be consulted in the library of the New England Historic Genealogical Society and the Maryland Historical Society, Baltimore, Md. It would seem that Philip, like some other members of his family, married rather late in life, since all his children could have been born later than 1675. His wife's identity is unknown, and since no probate is found for him his children are placed hypothetically, but correctly we feel sure, on circumstantial grounds. The three sons were named Walter, Philip, and Samuel, and the son Walter named a son Philip. The names are significant, because the father of Philip of Ringwood was named Walter, not one of the most common names, while his younger brother was named Samuel.

Philip Phetteplace's daughter Sarah married William Burrington of Portsmouth, R.I., whose sister Alice Burrington married Tobias Brown, a grandson of Nicholas Brown, one of the founders of Portsmouth. A contemporary of Nicholas Brown was a certain Tobias Brown, quite probably his brother, who was chosen a juryman 25 Feb. 1642; as he thereafter disappears, presumably he either died or returned to England (Austin, op. cit., p. 33, 28; Portsmouth records, op. cit., p. 2, 20). And at Portsmouth, England, one Tobias Brown married, 16 June 1656, Mary Phetteplace, almost certainly the widow of Philip's brother Francis (supra).

Philip Sherman, whose will Philip Phetteplace witnessed, was son of Samuel and Philippa (Ward) Sherman of Dedham, co. Essex, England, and nephew of Robert Ward (d. 1617) of Lexden, Colchester, co. Essex, England, whose widow, Parnell (Cole) Ward had married by 1620 a Phettiplace. Much research has failed to identify her Phettiplace husband, but if he was of the Ringwood branch an indirect connection between Philip Phetteplace and the Shermans of Portsmouth, R. I., would be established. It is tempting to speculate that Parnell was wife of Walter and mother of Philip. However, the known dates make it impossible for her to be mother of Walter's children except the two youngest, Philip and Samuel; we lack evidence that Walter was twice married; and it can be estimated that Parnell would have been 49 years old when Samuel was born.

Children, born possibly in Rhode Island:

i. SARAH, d. 8 Dec. 1711; mar. 10 Sept. 1700 WILLIAM BURRINGTON, a weaver; he remarried. Children: Alice, William and Roger.

ii. WALTER, d. 29 Dec. 1753; mar. 4 Aug. 1709, JOANNA MOWRY, dau. of Nathaniel and Joanna (Inman). He bought land in Providence in 1711, and in 1713 settled in Gloucester, which he represented as Deputy in 1731, 1736, 1745 and 1746. Children: Jonathan, Job, Philip, Benjamin, Sarah, Mercy and Mary.

iii. Philip, a Quaker, d. in 1752; mar. Ann (———) Partelow, a widow; no issue. He was of Kingstown, 1712, bought in Providence in 1713, and settled in West Greenwich.

iv. Samuel, d. after 1762; mar. 3 Nov. 1713, Abigail Hammond, who d. after 1762. He remained in Portsmouth, but probably removed late in life to Newport. Children: Sarah, Jonathan, Abigail, Rachel, John, George, Samuel, Benjamin, Rebecca.

Part 2

The brothers Fettiplace, William and Michael, companions of Capt. John Smith in Virginia, were descended from Sir Thomas Fettiplace of the manor of East Shefford, Berkshire, who died about 1442, buried in East Shefford Church where even today may be seen an impressive monument to his memory and to that of his wife Beatrix of Portugal. In spite of his high rank and social position, enhanced to be sure by the exalted birth of his wife, his descent from Adam Fettiplace, the first definitely known progenitor of this ancient family (Part 1, No. 1 above) has never been worked out. The parentage and descent of Beatrix has not been ascertained, but she was not the illegitimate daughter of King John I of Portugal, with whom she has sometimes been erroneously identified. For a discussion of her identity see The Complete Peerage, vol. 12, pt. 1, p. 619, footnote 'd'.

For the line of descent we rely chiefly on the excellent charts by J. Renton Dunlop in Miscellanea Genealogica et Heraldica, 5th Series, vol. 2, p. 131, 184-189.

1. Sir Thomas Fettiplace, d. about 1442, Knight of the Shire for Oxford, 1432; Sheriff of Berks and Oxon, 1435; married Beatrix of Portugal (d. Christmas Day 1447), the young widow of Sir Gilbert, Lord Talbot, whose first wife had been Joan of Gloucester, granddaughter of King Edward III.

2. John Fettiplace, d. August 1464, of East Shefford, a Squire of King Edward VI, by whom he was commissioned to convey the Garter and the robes of the Order to Alfonso V, King of Portugal; married Joan Fabian, widow of Robert Horne of London.

3. Richard Fettiplace, d. 1511, of East Shefford and Besselsleigh, Berks, married Elizabeth, daughter and heir of William Besells of Besselsleigh by his wife Alice, daughter of Sir Richard Harcourt. Through the Harcourts several royal lines can be traced; for some of these see Frederick Lewis Weis, Ancestral Roots of Sixty Colonists, 1951, p. 64-66.

Anne Fettiplace, 1496-1567, a daughter of Richard, married Edward Purefoy, 1494-1555; their daughter Mary Purefoy married Thomas Thorne, d. 1589; and their daughter Susannah Thorne, b. 1560, married Capt. Roger Dudley, d. 1585, by whom she was the mother of Thomas Dudley, 1576-1653, Governor of Massachusetts Bay Colony.

4. John Fettiplace, d. 6 Oct. 1524, of East Shefford and Besselsleigh, married Dorothy, d. 1559/60, daughter of Sir John Danvers of Colthorpe, Oxon.

5. Edmund Fettiplace, d. 1 April 1540, succeeded his father and married Margaret, daughter of John, Lord Mordaunt of Turvey, Beds. A line from their younger son, George, will be traced in Part 3, to follow. The eldest son:

6. Sir John Fettiplace, b. 1527, d. 28 Dec. 1580, married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Anthony Hungerford of Downe Ampney, co. Gloucester.

7. Besells Fettiplace, b. 1550, d. 26 Dec. 1609, of East Shefford and Besselsleigh, Sheriff of Berks, 1584, married Eleanor, bur. 12 March 1613, daughter of Richard Covert of Slaugham, Sussex, and sister of Sir Walter Covert, a member of the Virginia Company in 1620. With his eldest son, (Sir) Richard, he sold the manor of East Shefford in 1589, but the line continued at Besselsleigh until that manor was sold in 1633. The son, Sir Richard, was a Burgess of Portsmouth from 1602 until his death. Our interest is in two of the younger sons of Besells, William and Michael.

8. William and Michael Fettiplace are entered as brothers on Mr. Dunlop's chart; see also by Edward Arber, Travels and Works of Captain John Smith (Edinburgh, 1910), p. 448-465. They came to Virginia on the ship "John and Frances", arriving at Jamestown 2 Jan. 1608. They were members of Capt. John Smith's expedition to Pamaunkee and Werowacomoco, 1608-1609, wither Captain Smith went in "the Discovery Barge". William Fettiplace was captain of the pinnace; the other three gentlemen aboard were Michael Fettiplace, Lt. George Percie, brother to the Earl of Northumberland, and Master Francis West, brother of the Lord de La Warre. Captain Smith sent Michael Fettiplace on a mission overland to Jamestown to announce his imminent arrival, while he himself proceeded thither aboard ship. Some years later, in a letter forwarded from New England 16 July 1622, Captain Smith mentioned "two of the Phittiplaces . . . now living in England".

Michael Fettiplace had been apprenticed, 13 April 1590, to Richard Covert at St. Magnus Corner, and Dunlop calls him a merchant tailor. At the conclusion of his adventure in Virginia, he returned to his native country and Dunlop has it that he was buried at Appleton 26 Nov. 1640. However, inspection of the parish register shows that the date cited by Dunlop pertains to the burial of Richard Fettiplace, who was probably a brother of Michael, for the will of the oldest brother, Sir Richard, in 1616 mentions a brother of the same name as his own. In 1616 Michael and William Phettiplace joined with Richard Wiffing, "Gentlemen and Soldiers under Captain Smith's Command", in writing a eulogy in verse to Smith, praising his exploits in Virginia with particular reference to Powhatan and Opechancanough.

Smith's stories, in his Generall Historie (1624) about the aid given to him and the Jamestown settlers by Pocahontas have sometimes been questioned because he made no reference to her in his True Relation (1608). The latter, however, was merely a letter not intended for publication and was not published in full. The critics overlook the fact that in 1612 appeared Smith's A Map of Virginia, With a Description of the Country, to which was appended The Proceedings of the English Colonie in Virginia, not written by Smith, but with sections signed by various authors. In a section signed by Richard Pots and William Phetteplace we find the first mention of Pocahontas in English literature. It reads "Very oft shee came to our fort, with what shee could get for Captain Smith; that ever loued and vsed all the Countrie well, but her especially he ever much respected; and she so well requited it, that when her father intended to haue surprised him, shee by stealth in the darke night came through the wild woods and told him of it."

William Phettiplace was present at this occurrence and doubtless wrote the brief account of it. Smith tells the story in greater detail twelve years later in his Generall Historie, and there is no valid reason to doubt either this, first told by an actual witness, or Smith's story of his earliest encounter with Pocahontas when she saved his life, although on that occasion no English witness was present.

Of William Phettiplace's later life in England, little is known. He was a Burgess of Portsmouth from 1643, but in 1659 "mort" is noted against him name (H. Carter quotes the Portsmouth City Archivist on this subject). The will of William Fettiplace of Cuckfield, co. Sussex, gentleman, dated 4 May 1653, was proved 18 June 1656 (P.C.C. Berkley 249). Among the many items in this lengthy will is a bequest of 40 shillings "to my kinsman Michael Fettiplace of Portsmouth, County Southampton, gentleman". This Michael was, of course, not his brother of that name, but the first cousin of Philip Phetteplace of Rhode Island (see Part 1, above). Both men had been Burgesses of Portsmouth and, although their relationship must have been distant, William probably called Michael his kinsman as a matter of courtesy and on the presumption of descent from a common ancestor.

Part 3

Giles Fettiplace, of Coln St. Aldwyn, co. Gloucester, eminent Quaker and American land owner, was descended from Sir Thomas Fettiplace of East Shefford, his great-grandfather having been the third son of Edmund Fettiplace (Part 2, No. 5), namely:

6. George Fettiplace, d. 31 July 1577, admitted to the Middle Temple 25 July 1552, M. P. for Buckingham 1554, one of the Masters of the Bench and Justice of South Wales; married Cecily, daughter of Henry Poole of Poole, co. Bucks.

7. Robert Fettiplace, d. 1634, of Lemhill, Broughton Poggs; married Anne who was living in 1658.

8. Sir John Fettiplace, d. 18 Jan. 1663, of Coln St. Aldwyn, co. Gloucester, admitted to the Middle Temple 18 Oct. 1634, knighted at Whitehall 28 Jan. 1662; he married Eleanor, daughter of John Bray of Fyfield, co. Berks.

9. Giles Fettiplace, of Coln St. Aldwyn, matriculated at Christ Church, Oxford, 20 Dec. 1653. He married by license dated 22 July 1661, Mary, daughter and co-heir of John Purnell of Wicke, Gloucester, born about 1637. He died at Coln St. Aldwyn 13 Nov. 1702 and was buried at Cirencester. His wife was buried there in the Quaker burying ground, 27 Feb. 1700/1.

For a Quaker, he appears to have lived elegantly in accordance with his station. He was wont to drive in his coach-and-six to the Friends' Meetinghouse in Cirencester. He had six children, of whom three daughters survived as his heirs. His daughter Frances, baptized 23 Sept. 1666, was married at Cirencester, 2 Sept. 1686, to John Bellers, London merchant, Quaker and philanthropist, and patron of the living of Coln St. Aldwyn. One of the witnesses to this marriage was no less a person than William Penn of Rickmansworth, the founder of Pennsylvania.

Very probably it was through acquaintance with Penn that Giles invested heavily in land in Bucks County, Pa., as well as in New Jersey. There exists an attested copy, dated February 1795, of a "lease and release dated 20, 21 April 1677 between Henry Stacey of Gracechurch Street, London, and Giles Fettiplace of Coln St. Aldwyn, co. Gloucester for [£4.3s.9d.] of 1/32 part of 1/90 part of an undivided tract of land called West New Jersey"; also an attested copy, of same date, of a lease and release between William Penn of Warminghurst and Giles Fettiplace of Coln St. Aldwyn for the consideration of £20, of "1000 acres in Pennsylvania, to be alloted, paying 1s. per 100 acres as quitrent annually" (The Shiffner Archives, ed. Francis W. Steer, pub. The East Sussex County Council, 1959, p. 47-49).

Giles Fettiplace did not settle on and, so far as we know, never visited, his American property. For these and further details, see the charts of J. Renton Dunlop, op. cit., p. 248-249.

There was a Giles Fettiplace who was transported into Virginia by Mihill Hugill and used as a headright in taking up land in (old) Rappahannock County, 27 Jan. 1663 (Nell Marion Nugent, Cavaliers and Pioneers, 1934, p. 466). It does not seem likely that this was the above Giles, both because of the latter's superior social status and because he married in England in 1661 and had children baptized there in 1662 and 1664. But it is possible that the Virginia settler was his first cousin and the son of his uncle George Fettiplace. Of that Giles, it is known only that he was still living, apparently in England, in 1686 when he was named in his father's will. No further mention of Giles has been found in Virginia records.

Mary, I cannot find a list of children for John Folger and Meribah Gibbs in "Early Settlers of Nantucket" by Lydia S. Hinchman.

Folger, John m. Meribah Gibbs (probably 2nd wife).
(N.E. Hist. and Gen. Reg., vol XVI., Folger Family)
Folger, Peter, m. Mary Morrell.
(Savage, vol ii, pp 177, 178)

P. 67: "Benjamin Franklin, in his genealogical notes, infers that the Folger family was of Flemish origin, and went to England in the time of Queen Elizabeth.

"Peter Folger, son of John Folger, was born in 1617, and came from Norwich, England, in 1635."

This may not be new, but maybe Hinchman's references might have more info. I dont know how those references can be located.

We have made no attempt to authenticate any Arms for this branch of the Swick Family for two reasons: first, it is time-consuming with no promise of results, and second, it is impossible if the ancestry is not proven back to Europe.

Few Americans realize that there are specific rules governing the display of Arms, and that they are authenticated or granted by certain Eurpean countries for specific individuals, and depending upon the nature of the patent or grant, may be passed on to their heirs, or may be modified upon proper application by future generations. As explained in the N.Y. G. & B. Record, vol 103, No. 3, Americans may obtain the confirmation of arms of their own design through the College of Heraldry in London. It is most improper to copy someone-else's arms. In many countries it is illegal to display arms belonging to others. If an American is entitled to Arms thru inheritance, then it is possible to have them confirmed and published in this country by submitting the original grant from one of the Royal Houses of Europe, the vital records of the immigrant, proof of his arrival in this country, and a few other details to the Heraldry Committee of the N.E.H. G. Society. If all proof is acceptable, then the Committee will publish the Arms in the Register.

The spelling variants in use in the country are few and easily recognized: only the addition of an "e", "s", or "y". When family names were taken in the 16th & 17th Centuries, they were of about four catagories: from the patronymic, a trade, a postion or art, and of a locale. Locales could be either the name of a hamlet, an estate, or descriptive such as auten ash becoming Nash, meaning "by the ash tree" or or-ton becoming Horton, meaning an enclosed garden, both from Old English. Swick is germanic in origin and probably is a locale name coming from either zwick - a pinch, or zwickel - a gusset or gore, in today's German. This would imply that the family at the time of the taking of names lived on or by a pie-shaped piece of land. Such a piece of land exists on the West side of Seneca Lake, called the Gore, which starts as a point and expands many miles wide on the shores of Lake Ontario, resulting from the "accidental" error in the original surveying of the line setting off the Massachusetts' land from New York land at the end of the 18th Century.

We think that this, therefore, is the derivation of the name SWICK.

There may have been other children. Except for John, the baptisms were at the First Reformed Church of Raritan, Somerville, N.J.

Teunis' baptismal record not located and his position above is doubtful. By the Dutch naming system, he should be the second son, named after his paternal grandfather. One source has his birth as ca 1743, another as before 1732. He is mentioned, together with Teunis and Martin, as John's brothers in the latter's will (see #5.1)

Teunis was arbitrarily assigned a fifth generation number of 5.5 when we started researching this family.

The records of the Harlengen Dutch Church have "Baptized April 15, 1730, Johannes, son of Johannes SWIK and Barbara COEVERS. Witnesses - Bergon Coevers and Jannetie Coevers." [note: Bergon is probably her brother and Jannetie her mother]

For Barbara's ancestry, see #2.5 in my Covert Family and #2.02 in my Brokaw Family of this same series.

John's will dated 6 Mar 1762, proved 26 Oct 1765, mentions wife, three children "when of age" in the above order, and brothers Peter, Teunis and Martin. He was of Tewksbury, Hunterdon County, N.J. and probably died there.

The above Teunis #6.3 has been confused in several family records with Teunis #5.5, but examination of the few meager dates shows that this is not likely.

As of this date, the land records have not been searched.

See appendix for possible descendants of this family.

Some family records have 13 Sep 1850 for Martin's death and 25 Dec 1781 for Elizabeth's birth.

Rachel died in the Town of Covert (Town of Ovid in 1817) and is buried beside her son Capt. Tunis S. Swick, in the Abram Covert Farm Cemetery in Ovid. Her stone reads age 74y-1m-5d.

It is not recorded just when Rachel and her children came to Seneca County, other than John #6.51 came about 1799 or 1800 after his father-in-law had already settled in Ovid. It can be assumed that if Rachel and the other children did not come with her eldest son, then she followed within a year or so.

Rachel's will is filed in Waterloo and reads as follows:

In the Name of God, Amen.

The twenty-fourth day of January in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen. I, Rachel Swick, widow, of the Town of Ovid, County of Seneca, being sick in body, but in perfect mind and memory - Blesses be God for the same - and knowing that it is appointed for all once to die, do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament as follows:

Firstly I give and commit my body to the grave, and my spirit to God who gave it. Concerning my worldly affairs wherewith God has blest me in this life, I give and bequeath in form and manner the following: To wit, firstly I give and bequeath to my four daughters, namely Mascey, Barbery, Hannah and Rachel all my wearing apparel to be devided between them; secondly I will that the remainder of my personal estate shall be equally divided between all my children, namely John, Martin, Benjamin, Andrew, Mascey, Barbara, Hannah and Rachel, and my grandson David Swick. After my funeral expenses and necessary charges be paid first. Lastly, I nominate and appoint my trusty friends, John Blauvelt and Henry Fulkerson to be my executors to this my last will, hereby disallowing all other or former wills or things whatsoever in witness where I have unto set my hand and seal, the day and year above written.

Rachel Swick

Elizabeth is not mentioned in the will, so we can assume that she died prior to the date of the will. Tunis S., having died in 1815 is not mentioned, but his eldest son, David, is altho his other children are not mentioned.

Covert family records and Wheeler Bassett have confused this generation by assigning Barbara #6.57 to John's (#6.51) family. In 1904 Mrs. Helen Emmons said that her grandmother Barbara Swick Rappleye was sister to Martin and Tunis Swick. Had Bassett had dates, he would have been aware of this error. We can presume that there are still errors in the sixth generation where dates are missing and where only family records are cited. The compilers have made every effort to eleminate all errors.

The children through Barabara were born in Hunterdon County, N.J., and the rest probably in Virginia, but we lack details.

See comments about Teunis and Rachel on preceeding pages.

Ezekiel Rose had a son Ezekiel, Jr., b 1745 in N.J., who had a daughter named Rachel.

FOLGER

Savage in his Genealogical Dictionary in describing Peter Folger, the first of the name to be connected with Nantucket, says that he came from Norwich, County Norfolk, England in 1635, went early from Watertown to Martha's Vineyard, probably with Thomas Mayhew. He bestowed great pains in teaching the Indians, as successor to Mayhew, and removed about 1663 to the island, where his name has ever since been in high regard.

Nathaniel Barney says of him* "Peter Folger of whom Cotton Mather speaks "as a pious and learned Englishman" has been named as the interpreter for Tristram Coffin Senior when he first visited Nantucket. He was the only child of John Folger, whose wife was Meribah Gibbs, and came from Norwich, England, a widower, in 1636, having his residence at some time thereafter at Martha's Vineyard. Peter married Mary Morrill in 1644, having bought her of Hugh Peters, to whom she owed service, and paid the sum of £20. which he very gallantly declared was the best appropriation of money he had ever made. Their children were two sons and seven daughters, the last of whom, Abiah, was born at Nantucket the 15th of August, 1669. She was the mother of Doct'r Franklin, and her visits to her relatives here were very frequent, even in her old age. During one of her visits particularly she was desirous of a bunch of mint from the garden of her deceased father. The young man whom she enlisted for the service was Thomas Arthur, and on receiving the parcel from his hands she said to the youth—"I saw that mint placed by my father, in that garden, three score years ago."

Peter Folger's houselot was on the road extending from Main street west, and about two miles from the Upper Square. It may be readily identified by a monument erected on the site by the Daughters of the American Revolution, in honor of his daughter, Abiah, the mother of Franklin.

Patronymica Britannica says of the name, giving preference to Foulger as the form, that it signifies "A follower (Anglo Saxon folgere), an attendant, a servant, a free-man who had not a house of his own, but who was the retainer of some "heorth-faest" or house-keeper."

PETER AND MARY

The children of Peter and Mary were—i Joanna, who married John Coleman, son of Thomas Sr. and Johanna.

ii Bethiah, who married (February 26, 1668) John Barnard, son of Robert Sr. and Joanna.
iii Dorcas, who married Joseph, Pratt of Charlestown, (February 12, 1675).

---

*William C. Folger gives this name as Joseph.

†The only child of Peter and Mary who was born in Nantucket.

‡As recorded by the Town Clerk.

She was a sister of Col. Benj. Church, the conqueror of King Philip of Mount Hope.

††William C. Folger (N. E. Hist. General Register vol. 16, p. 272) gives Bethiah as the second child born 24th, 11 mo. 1692; married (9 mo. 1718) Samuel Barker of Falmouth.

WHITE ROSE CEMETERY DATABASE ENHANCEMENT PROJECT

Search Library website; click on: Genealogy; Bartlesville Newspaper Index; Newspaper Title Keyword. Enter: surname, given name.

Search obituary card file. The available newspapers (some overlapping in years) are: Bartlesville Magnet, Washington Countian, Bartlesville Weekly Examiner, Bartlesville Morning Examiner, Bartlesville Daily Enterprise, Bartlesville Examiner-Enterprise, Dewey Globe, Ramona Herald.

Search microfilm using newspaper references from the above. Also search microfilm if above searches produce no "hit" and death date or burial date is given. Remember the card file and website are not complete. Obituaries and death notices may be found throughout earlier newspapers.

Search funeral home records (if available). These are in binders in a bookcase near Carol's desk. The library has records of the following funeral homes:

|---|---|
| Earley | 1922-1929 |
| Burt's | Aug. 12, 1911 – Apr. 22, 1952 |
| McCallister | Nov. 16, 1907 – Aug. 5, 1942 |
| Neekamp | 1940-1950 (additional years are being added) |

Obituaries published in 1999 and thereafter are only posted in the online database.

Copy obituaries, death notices, and funeral records. The City will incur all copy fees so you pay nothing for this project.

If you locate an obituary or death notice that is not included in the Library's database or card file, make an additional copy and give it separately to Carol.

Write on the back of all copies copy: name of newspaper, date, and page number or name of funeral home.

If no information is located, list which searches were made.
When completed give copies and this list to Carol. Thank you for your help!

Play Pageant Friday Night

Rev. C. O. Haymaker, pastor of the Assembly of God church at Third and Virginia, announces that the special Christmas observance for his church will be a pageant of the first Christmas, "Wise Men From the East," with a cast of 30 people, including a large angel chorus, which will be presented Friday night, December 22, at 7:30 at the church.

All players will appear in full costume. The public is invited, and no admission will be charged, the pastor said.

in Great Amwell, Hoddesdon and Broxbourne, Hertfordshire, and £20 annuities from the Farrar estate, "Ewood," in Yorkshire, to his son William Farrar and £50 at his return to England. He did return, briefly, for on 6 Sept. 1631 William Farrar of London, Gent., sold his brother Henry Farrar of Reading, Berkshire, for £200 the properties and annuities so bequeathed, and, since John Farrar had reserved these bequests to William's wife and children, the names of "Cecily his wife and Cecily and William his children" appear in the deed.[14] He returned to Virginia and died in 1637, before 11 June, when his young son William$^2$ received a patent as his heir.

Cicely, whose maiden name is not known, came to Virginia in the Swan with Sir Thomas Gates, arriving near the end of Aug. 1611.[15] She married (1) —— Baley, by whom she had a daughter 1.
